ABSTRACT

OF THE

NET REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

OF

Western Australia

FOR THE YEAR

1847.

Insert under general heads the Receipts and Disbursements, so as to exhibit distinctly and separately the Sources from which the Receipts have been derived, on the one hand, whether from the Resources of the Colony, from Parliamentary Grants, or from Her Majesty's Treasury, and, on the other, the Total Expense incurred by each Department of the Government; distinguishing the Ordinary Established Charge of the several Offices from their Contingent and Accidental Expenses.

Such Observations as may be sufficient to explain the causes, and point to the remedy of any deficiency in the Revenue, or excess of the Expenditure, must form the subject of a Special Report to accompany the Blue Book when transmitted to the Secretary of State.

QUESTIONS.	ANSWERS.
1. General description of the Prison; whether Common Gaol, House of Correction, or otherwise? (To be accompanied by a Ground Plan of the Buildings, &c.)	The Gaol at Fremantle Gaol is a Dodecagon including an inner area of thirty seven feet in diameter used as a place of exercise for the prisoners committed for trial or not sentenced to hard labor, and as a trasling yard. In the Centre is a Well. This building is used both as a Common Gaol and House of Correction. Albany Gaol is a small building consisting of two Cells and an outer room or Court. There are also lock up houses at Bunbury & Guildford in charge of the other Dist. Constables.
2. Under whose jurisdiction and superintendence; and what measures are adopted for securing the Visitation of the Prison by the Local Magistrates or other authorities? (A Copy of the Rules and Regulations to be forwarded with the Return.)	These Gaols are under the immediate jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the Colony, as far as relates to all matters of discipline but under the Superintendence of the Local Government in all points relative to Expenditure. Two visiting Magistrates are by the Rules and Regulations of the Gaols to be appointed annually at the January Sessions, of whom one is always the Resident Magistrate of the District and resides immediately in the neighborhood.
3. Number of Officers, and how appointed? Do all the Officers reside in the Prison? Are Female Prisoners attended by Female Officers exclusively?	In Each Gaol there is one Gaoler with an occasional Assistant to Superintend the Prisoners sentenced to hard work outside the Gaol. The Gaoler at Fremantle resides within the Prison. When Female Prisoners have been committed (which is of rare occurrence) they are employed in washing, Cooking &c: in the room used as a Kitchen under the personal Superintendence of a Female engaged specially for the purpose, and at night are confined in separate Cells.—
4. Number of Classes, Divisions, or Wards, Day-rooms, Work-rooms, and Airing-yards (with reference to Plan); and whether the same can be extended or increased?	No other classification than that of locking up in separate Cells can at present be attended to, but so far as such means admit, every possible discrimination of Sex, age & character has been observed. There is no place for exercise beyond the yard or court already alluded to. It is seldom the Gaol contains any person who is not sentenced to hard labor, or who not being judicially so, is not willing to submit to it in order to obtain the increased Ration allowed by the Regulations. There is abundance of Crown Land adjoining the two Gaols for an indefinite extension of them.
5. Number of Sleeping-cells, Solitary or Dark-cells, &c.; and if any are below-ground	In Fremantle Gaol there are twelve Cells one of which is occupied by the Gaoler one used as a Kitchen, two as privies & the remaining 8 as Cells. One cell is lined with solid planking for the confinement of refractory or dangerous characters but none of them have any distinctive character as to "Solitary" or dark. None are under ground.—
