

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	PHILM301 Community of Inquiry. Participants will gain skills in the powerful communication and pedagogical methodology of community of inquiry. Designed to promote transferable, lifelong learning by cultivating curiosity, collaboration and self-correction, CoI is used with people all ages in numerous contexts, from preschools to retirement homes, hospitals, prisons, science centres and art galleries. We think that thinking leads to change and that practicing thinking, improves thinking!
Certified learning	(1) demonstrate an understanding of the dynamics of community of inquiry processes; (2) apply basic principles of philosophy, including questioning, reasoning and critical thinking; and (3) facilitate community of inquiry processes.
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	75 hours. Each teaching week you should plan to: - familiarise yourself with the reading content provided on LMS and complete any required tasks before attending the online workshop (6.5 hours) - attend the workshop (2 hours) - complete tasks associated with your assignments (6.5 hours per week)
Main assessment task	Testing recall of facts, Portfolio and reflective evidence for validation of proficiency, Application of multiple skills to complex problems
Indicative equivalent level	Undergraduate
Industry recognition	Nil
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	3
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Credit is less than one unit