

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Title and brief description                           | PACMM100 Write Ahead: Academic writing and study skills. This micro-credential will unlock the academic skills you need to succeed at uni. Get a head start on your understanding of uni culture, academic writing, time management, memorisation, study practice, reading scholarly papers, and critical thinking. |
| Certified learning                                    | (1) describe the principles and scholarly research related to successful university study practice; (2) describe basic principles of academic reading; (3) apply the basic principles of evaluating and using academic sources; and (4) apply the basic principles of academic writing.                             |
| How learner participated                              | Online only   |
| Effort required (indicative)                          | 50 hours total. 10 x asynchronous modules (25 hours); 3 x synchronous sessions (6 hours); revision + assessment (19 hours)  |
| Main assessment task                                  | Application of a skill to a routine problem, Application of a skill to a complex problem, Application of multiple skills to routine problems  |
| Indicative equivalent level                           | Undergraduate   |
| Industry recognition                                  | N/A   |
| Quality assurance                                     | The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.  |
| Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to: | 2   |
| . Admission to an award course                        | No  |
| . Credit towards an award course                      | Yes   |
| . If yes, how much credit?                            | Credit is less than one unit  |