

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	Breastfeeding: A foundation for human health (Part One)
Teaching staff	Melinda Boss, Donna Geddes, Valerie Verhasselt
Certified learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Graduates will be able to describe the importance of breastfeeding and its impact on health, the economy and the environment • Graduates will be able to apply framework for screening breastfeeding to identify normal function • Graduates will be able to critically analyse breastfeeding research and apply their understanding of current gaps in knowledge to interpret research outcomes
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	75 hours
Main assessment task	Application of multiple skills to complex problems
Supervision and identity verification	Unsupervised, no identity verification
Indicative equivalent level	Masters
Quality assurance	The University of Western Australia
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Admission to an award course 	No Click or tap here to enter text.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Credit towards an award course 	Yes Click or tap here to enter text.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If yes, how much credit? 	Credit is less than one unit