

UWA EMERGING ENGINEERS COMPETITION 2023

PERMISSION TO PARTICIPATE

Dear Parent/Guardian,

I am pleased to advise that your child's school has registered to take part in UWA's Emerging Engineers Competition 2023. The competition is designed to introduce female primary and high school students to engineering research and design principles. The competition participants plan, design, and develop a solution to a current real-world problem.

By returning this form, you acknowledge that you have read and understand the information regarding the Emerging Engineers Competition and Terms and Conditions available at:

<https://www.uwa.edu.au/projects/oceanworks-outreach>

☐ I give full permission for my child to enter the Emerging Engineers Competition 2023

Feedback Surveys

By signing this form, I acknowledge that my child may be contacted through their teacher to fill out feedback survey regarding this experience. This feedback is used to understand the impact of STEM outreach activities conducted at UWA. No personal information regarding your child will be retained by UWA.

Talent Release and Photo Permissions

During this competition, your child may be invited to events where they will have their image and/ or the image of their submitted project work photographed or recorded for publicity purposes.

All images and footage taken as part of the Emerging Engineers Competition becomes the property of The University of Western Australia (UWA) and may be used in University publications, on the UWA and Girls in Engineering website, and may be passed on to media to use only in conjunction with stories, articles and advertising that directly promotes the Faculty of Engineering and Mathematical Sciences, The Girls in Engineering program, OceanWorks, sponsors of the program, and the University.

☐ I give permission for images and video footage of my child and child's submitted project to be used by The University of Western Australia, University publications, on any associated UWA website, and by media selected by UWA.
