

Expression of Interest

Sessional Teaching (Tutoring) within the UWA Law School 2020

As a first step, you should contact the Unit Coordinator of the unit you are interested in tutoring in to see if they have availability. If you are not interested in one particular unit or just wish to have your EOI on file, complete the below and return as directed below.

Your Details

Name:
UWA Student Number: (if you are a current student)
UWA Employee Number: (if applicable)		Semester & Year you last tutored: (if applicable)
Address:
Contact Number:
Email address:
Completed Qualifications: eg BCom/LLB (Hons), JD, PhD	(Please attach an academic transcript if you are NOT a UWA student.)
Eligibility to work in Australia: Legislation requires that you are eligible to work in Australia.	Please indicate your eligibility to work in Australia:
	Australian citizen		Australian Permanent resident
	Work visa		Student visa
	Bridging visa
UWA Scholarship recipient: (currently receiving)	Yes	(If YES, ensure NOT working more than 8 hours per week during normal business hours)
No

Teaching Preferences

Unit(s)/Area(s) of Law:
Availability:

ALL items listed below are required for your application:

- 1) Completed expression of interest form.
- 2) An up to date curriculum vitae containing: all tertiary qualifications detailing the degree, the year of completion and institution, employment history over the last five years; published research; academic record of any course work degrees (non-UWA graduates); and DETAILS OF TWO (2) REFEREES.

Please return this form via email to: academicsupport-law@uwa.edu.au Your details will then be kept on file for 2020 and you will be contacted should a suitable position arise.