

Submission for a UWA Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning (for faculty/professional or casual/sessional teaching staff) (for submission to the Learning and Teaching Awards Selection Committee)

The UWA Citations for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning recognise and reward the diversity of contributions made by individuals and teams to the quality of student learning at the University, within the faculties and professional areas, both direct and indirect i.e Campus Management, Human Resources, Service Centres.

With the awarding of Citations for Casual/Sessional Teaching, the University acknowledges the very important role of the teaching staff in the education of our students and their overall student experience.

To be eligible for a UWA Citation for Outstanding Contributions to Student Learning Faculty/Professional or Casual/Sessional Teaching the staff member/team will have received a faculty Award within 12 months of their submission. The nominees for an Australian Award for University Teaching (AAUT) are selected from the recipients of a UWA Award.

Awards prize money

The Award monies are awarded as a prize and disbursed to the recipients to be used to:

1. Advance the career/s of the recipient/s.

For example: presenting at a conference and costs associated with attending - conference registrations, accommodation and travel.

2. Provide additional resources to support their teaching or activities related to the award.

3. Assist the individual/team to disseminate good practice in learning and teaching.

For example: teaching forums, professional development, seminars, website development/hosting, assistance for publications, teaching relief.
