

How do I remove UWA's permission to interact with my ORCID profile?

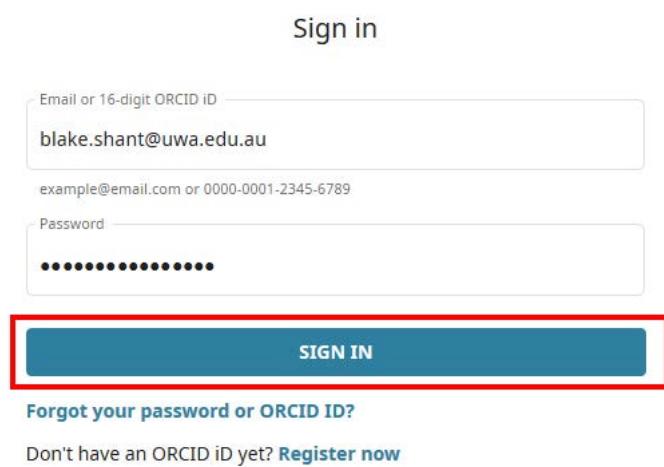

If you primarily work at another institution and already have that home institution connected to your ORCID profile, you may not want your UWA Repository profile to add or update information on your ORCID profile, which can cause duplication. It's important to still connect your ORCID iD to your UWA profile, but once you've done so you can remove UWA's permission to add or update information in your ORCID profile.

1. Go to the ORCID homepage

2. Click on SIGN IN/REGISTER to log into your ORCID profile

3. You will be redirected to an ORCID login page. Enter your account details and sign in.
