DAYS OF MUSIC

Immerse yourselves in a fun and interactive day of performance, including activities such as ensemble playing, technical workshops, instrument care and demonstrations, aural skills, masterclasses and much more!

WA Day of Woodwind

8 Mar | 10am-2pm | trybooking.com/DIDYL

Spend a day immersed in music with UWA Chair of Woodwind, Ashley Smith, and guest artists from around Australia. Open to flute, clarinet, saxophone, oboe and bassoon students, this is a chance to play, learn, and get inspired. The program includes workshops, masterclasses, performance sessions and trade displays, with a big emphasis on performing. You'll pick up ideas for improving sound and technique, get practical tips for confident performance, and learn how to keep your instrument in great shape.

WA Day of Music Theatre

3 May | 2pm-5pm | trybooking.com/DIDZS

Led by UWA's Chair of Music Theatre, Matt Ward, this vibrant day is packed with workshops and activities designed to enhance your vocal skills, musicality, and confidence on stage. Whether you're preparing for a show, ATAR Music, AMEB exams, or simply love music theatre, you'll have the chance to sing with others, gain expert feedback and connect with fellow performers in a relaxed, supportive setting. Don't miss this opportunity to elevate your performance skills!

WA Day of Strings

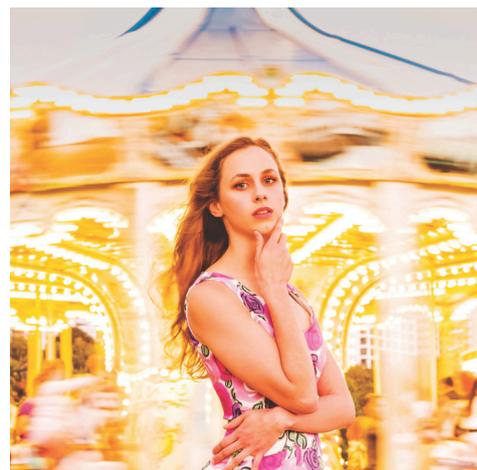

9 May | 1pm-5pm | trybooking.com/DIEDU

Presented in collaboration with AUSTA WA, join celebrated artists and educators Shaun Lee-Chen, Suzie Wijsman and a host of string specialists for a fun day of performance, perfect for Violin, Viola and Cello players of all ages. The day will include cello masterclasses, technique workshops, ensemble playing, instrument set-up, and more!

WA Day of Voice

6 Jun | 2pm-5pm | trybooking.com/DIUNZ

Spend an afternoon building your vocal skills with some of Perth's most experienced teachers and performers, including UWA Chair of Classical Voice Lisa Harper-Brown and other leading industry professionals. Open to singers of all ages, abilities and styles, Day of Voice is practical, supportive, and packed with ideas you can use straight away. Come along to sing, learn, and leave with new tools and new confidence.

WA Double Bass Day

20 Jun | 2pm-6pm | trybooking.com/DIUOM

Led by Associate Principal Double Bass of WASO and passionate educator John Keene, enjoy workshops, masterclasses, excerpt sessions and chamber music, finishing with a showcase concert. Build technique, boost performance confidence, and spend the day playing alongside fellow bassists in a friendly, supportive environment.

WA Day of Piano

19 Jul | 1-5pm | trybooking.com/DIWNL

The WA Day of Piano is a hands-on day of masterclasses, workshops and performances to boost your exam prep, practice habits, flexibility and expression, led by UWA's expert Piano Faculty. Ideally timed for ATAR Music, AMEB and other exams, the skills and insights you gain will benefit your playing in every setting.

WA Day of Brass

15 Aug | 1pm-5pm | trybooking.com/DIWPU

Join UWA's Brass Faculty and special guests for a practical day of playing, with ensemble sessions, technique workshops and masterclasses. Suitable for brass players at any level, you'll build tone and technique in instrument-specific sessions, pick up smart practice strategies, and learn how to care for your instrument. Expect plenty of time playing in groups, finishing with an informal massed concert to wrap up the day.

WA Day of Percussion

20 Sept | 10am-2pm | trybooking.com/DIWSU

The Day of Percussion features masterclasses, workshops and performances led by some of Australia's top percussionists, including UWA Chair of Percussion Paul Tanner. Participants will dive into hands-on sessions featuring drums, marimbas and everything in between! Participants get to perform in the final performance at the end of the day, alongside the Conservatorium's Piñata percussion ensemble.

WA Day of Guitar

24 Oct | 1-5pm | trybooking.com/DIWYN

Classical guitarists of all ages and levels are invited to the UWA Conservatorium of Music for an inspiring day of performances, workshops, masterclasses, guitar comparison demos and guitar orchestras led by some of WA's finest performers and educators. The day finishes with a massed guitar orchestra for all participants, alongside performances from the UWA Guitar Studio. Build your technique, strengthen your ensemble skills, and enjoy a supportive day of music-making with fellow guitarists.

ATAR Music Resources for Students & Teachers

Academic staff here at the UWA Conservatorium of Music have developed a range of online resources to support music teachers and students across WA.

This suite of resources have been carefully designed around the ATAR Music Syllabus, and also include a wide range of topics that will support student learning across a number of contexts.

Bite-size videos cover elements of Analysis, Performance and Musical Literacy and are accompanied by written documents, quizzes and further study links that will help support student learning beyond the classroom. Resources also include full written analysis of the Designated works to support teachers in delivering the new syllabus.

THE WA AMEB AWARD

SHINING A SPOTLIGHT ON STUDENT'S ACHIEVEMENT AND COMMITMENT IN THE PERFORMING ARTS

The WA AMEB Award is an exciting nationally recognised program that rewards the commitment individuals of all ages make to the performing arts.

This prestigious award acknowledges an individual's contribution both on stage and behind the scenes, cultivating sought-after skills in their craft, in leadership, communication, collaboration and creativity.

By undertaking three key Award requirements: performances; skill development; and broadening activities, participants expand their creative horizons and develop core performance skills. Participants in years 10-12 of their education, completing the Bronze, Silver or Gold Awards, can also gain points towards their high school WACE graduation!

Those completing the Award gain official recognition for their achievement in the form of an AMEB Award certificate and Award pin.

The Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards are recognised by the School Curriculum and Standards Authority of Western Australia (SCSA), as an Endorsed Program for secondary school WACE graduation. It is also recognised by leading arts organisations and by universities, including UWA's Experience-based entry pathway!

The Ignite Award is our entry-level award designed to fire up students' engagement in their music communities.

For schools and community groups, the Award Program is a great way to foster community, elevate ensemble performance and nurture new skills and talents.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

ENGAGEMENT IN PERFORMING ARTS

Build confidence and artistry through performance.

Complete a specified number of performances (solo or as part of an ensemble) in front of an audience e.g. through school productions and concerts, debating, public speaking, eisteddfods or festivals.

BROADENING ACTIVITIES

Demonstrate commitment and support for the arts, beyond performing.

Participation in the running of ensembles and events, and other arts-based activity e.g. assisting with ticketing or back-stage, consistently helping with set-up, participating in workshops and meetings etc.

UPSKILLING

Develop skills through AMEB exams.

Successfully complete the corresponding AMEB exam within 12 months of registration.

AWARD STRUCTURE

Ignite, Bronze, Silver and Gold awards recognise the development of skills through an AMEB qualification, participation in performances and broadening activities.

BENEFITS FOR YOUR STUDENTS & ORGANISATION

Increased Engagement

Under the award, participants receive 'credit' for their activities, which results in a strong sense of belonging, meaning higher attendance rates and retention of students/ participants. Participants also deepen their understanding and appreciation of the arts.

Building Community

The award encourages and builds community through active participation in the running of ensembles and other arts-based activity. This could mean regularly helping with set-up of equipment, assisting with marketing, helping behind the scenes etc, helping to build community-mindedness and a sense of belonging.

Upskilling

Participants develop their skills through the vehicle of AMEB exams, inspiring them to excel in their chosen area and raising standards across the board. The more people that participate, the greater the benefit!

Don't forget AMEB Exams and the AMEB WA Award Program can count towards your high school graduation (WACE). Find out more at ameb.uwa.edu.au
