

TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE – ATAR MUSIC

MUSIC ANALYSIS

Unit 1: Elements

Haydn 'Background' Questions

1. Haydn developed the keyed trumpet and then wrote his concerto for the new instrument.

TRUE

FALSE

2. The keyed trumpet was revolutionary in that it was able to play chromatic scales.

TRUE

FALSE

3. Who is known as the father of the symphony?

a) Mozart

b) J.S. Bach

c) Haydn

d) Beethoven

4. Who was one of Haydn's piano students?

a) J.S. Bach

b) Schubert

c) Robert Schumann

d) Beethoven

- e) What does the term monothematic mean in terms of sonata form

a) The composer only uses one theme for the whole symphony

b) The composer one uses the same theme in both the home key and secondary key in the exposition.

c) The composer stays in the same key for the whole movement.

d) The composer uses a theme from a previous piece of music.

SCROLL TO PAGE 2 FOR ANSWERS

Haydn 'Background' Answers

1. Haydn developed the keyed trumpet and then wrote his concerto for the new instrument.

TRUE - Sorry the answer is false. Haydn wrote his concerto for the new instrument but he didn't develop it.

FALSE - Correct!

2. The keyed trumpet was revolutionary in that it was able to play chromatic scales.

TRUE - Correct!

FALSE - Sorry the answer is true. The natural trumpet was the instrument in existence before and it could only play notes from the chromatic scale.

3. Who is known as the father of the symphony?

a) Mozart - Sorry the answer is Haydn. Haydn is generally considered the father of the symphony and wrote over 100 symphonies.

b) J.S. Bach - Sorry the answer is Haydn. Haydn is generally considered the father of the symphony and wrote over 100 symphonies.

c) Haydn - Correct!

d) Beethoven - Sorry the answer is Haydn. Haydn is generally considered the father of the symphony and wrote over 100 symphonies.

4. Who was one of Haydn's piano students?

a) J.S. Bach - Sorry the answer is Beethoven. Haydn taught Beethoven piano for a short time in Vienna in 1792.

b) Schubert - Sorry the answer is Beethoven. Haydn taught Beethoven piano for a short time in Vienna in 1792.

c) Robert Schumann - Sorry the answer is Beethoven. Haydn taught Beethoven piano for a short time in Vienna in 1792.

d) Beethoven - Correct!

5. What does the term monothematic mean in terms of sonata form

a) The composer only uses one theme for the whole symphony. - Sorry the answer is "The composer one uses the same theme in both the home key and secondary key in the exposition."

b) The composer one uses the same theme in both the home key and secondary key in the exposition. - Correct!

c) The composer stays in the same key for the whole movement. - Sorry the answer is "The composer one uses the same theme in both the home key and secondary key in the exposition."

d) The composer uses a theme from a previous piece of music. - Sorry the answer is "The composer one uses the same theme in both the home key and secondary key in the exposition."