UWA School of Design 2019 Junior Art and Design Awards

As part of our commitment to the broader community, the UWA School of Design is proud to announce its inaugural Junior Art and Design Awards. In celebration of the emerging creative talent which exists across Western Australia, the awards are open to young artists and designers who engage in a variety of disciplines, including Architecture, Ceramics, Drawing, Graphic Design, Industrial Design, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture and Video.

The theme for this year's award is A CHANGING WORLD and will be broken into six categories:

- 1) Art & Environment
- 2) Art & Science/Engineering
- 3) Art & Storytelling
- 4) Design & Environment
- 5) Design & Science/Engineering
- 6) Design & Storytelling

The awards are open to artist or designers in school groups years 7-9 and 10-12. Submissions will be assessed by a panel of professional judges who will evaluate work for creativity, quality of skill, and responsiveness to the selected entry category. Prizes will be awarded to the top submissions in each category, and a curated selection of work from all entries will be invited to participate in an award exhibition at the Cullity Gallery at the UWA School of Design.

HOW TO APPLY:

Entries must be submitted via email to uwajuniorartaward@gmail.com

You may submit up to 3 items. Only submissions made via email will be accepted.
