Timetable Guide 2020

To assist you with understanding the delivery modes for our MBA units for the rest of this year, please refer to the information below -

Face to Face

Classes are held in person on the Crawley campus, attendance is as per the timetable.

Blended

Content will be delivered online however students are required to attend in person on the scheduled dates and times to work in groups with an academic facilitator.

Online Interactive

Classes are delivered remotely via Zoom but students are required to be available online as per the timetable as the class is run interactively.

Online

Classes are delivered fully online and no commitment required by students on a certain date and time however weekly engagement is expected and online attendance at scheduled exam time.

A note about exams

All units that have a final exam will be scheduled in the published examination period. All students, regardless of delivery mode will need to take the exam at the scheduled time as per their exam timetable which is released on 16th October in studentConnect.
