

Master of Landscape Architecture (3 years/144 points) Required Conversion Units 2020

Students entering the Master of Landscape Architecture without the Landscape Architecture undergraduate major (or equivalent) must take conversion units to the value of up to 48 points, as determined by the faculty upon offer of admission. Once the conversion units have been completed students can undertake the masters level units.

Conversion units (48 Points)
Level 1 Studio (take all)			Semester
ARLA1000	Design Studio Groundings	6 pts	S1 & S2
Level 2 and 3 Studios (one at each level)
LACH2000	Landscape Arch. Studio - Considerations (level 2)	6 pts	S1
LACH2001	Landscape Arch. Studio - Speculations (level 2)	6 pts	S2
LACH3000	Landscape Arch. Studio – Expansions (level 3)	6 pts	S1
LACH3001	Landscape Arch. Studio – Resolutions* (level 3)	12 pts	S2
Technical (take all)
LACH2030	Site Manipulation	6 pts	S1
LACH2050	Plants and Landscape Systems	6 pts	S2
History/Theory (take one)
LACH1010	History and Theories of Landscape Architecture	6 pts	S1
LACH1020	The Culture of Nature	6 pts	S2
Communications/Structures (take all)*
* If you take LACH3001 (12 points studio) you only need to take one unit
ARLA1040	Techniques of Visualisation	6 pts	S1
ARLA1030	Structures and Natural Systems	6 pts	S2

Please check your conversion unit study plan with the Design and Education Student Office before the start of the semester.*

For the most current information regarding unit availabilities, refer to www.handbooks.uwa.edu.au

(Information is correct as of November 2019)