

Landscape Architecture major 2020 enrolment guide

The Landscape Architecture major can be completed as degree-specific major within the Bachelor of Arts, or as a second major in any degree. Complementary units are not required if taken as a second major.

Semester 1	Semester 2
level 1
Design Studio Groundings* ARLA1000 ¹ (core) (S1 +S2) (previously LACH1000)	Structures and Natural Systems ARLA1030 (comp previously ARCT1030)
Techniques of Visualisation ARLA1040 (core) (previously IDES1040)	Broadening unit ²
History and Theory of Landscape Architecture LACH1010 (comp)	Elective unit or second major
Broadening unit ²	Elective unit or second major

level 2
Site Manipulation LACH2030 (core)	Landscape Architecture Studio - Speculations LACH2001 (core)
Landscape Architecture Studio - Considerations LACH2000 (comp)	LACH2050 Plants and Landscape Systems (core previously LACH3030)
Broadening unit ²	Broadening unit ²
Elective or Second Major unit	Elective or Second Major unit

level 3
Landscape Architecture Studio - Expansions LACH3000 (core)	Landscape Architecture Studio - Resolutions LACH3001 12 points (core previously LACH3001 a 6 point studio)
Level 3 unit ³ (if Landscape Architecture is your only major)
Elective or Second Major unit	Elective or Second Major unit
Elective or Second Major unit	Elective or Second Major unit

Note:

¹ Mid-year entry (Sem 2): Begin with ARLA1000

² Students must complete four broadening units. At least one of these must be from Category A. Lists of broadening units are available in the Handbooks website at www.handbooks.uwa.edu.au.

³ Students must complete four level 3 units in a bachelor degree.

For the most current information regarding unit availabilities and majors, refer to www.handbooks.uwa.edu.au
(Information is correct as of August 2019)