Promise of a Pharmacist

(Master of Pharmacy)

As a pharmacist, I vow to serve humanity and to support my profession's ideals and commitments.

- I shall be guided in all dimensions of my life by the highest standards of human conduct.
- I shall apply the full measure of my knowledge and abilities to supporting the health and well-being of all those I serve.
- I shall always place the needs of all those I serve above my personal interests and considerations.
- I shall treat all those I serve equally, fairly and with respect, regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, religion, culture or political beliefs.
- I shall protect the confidentiality of personal and health information entrusted to me.
- I shall maintain my professional knowledge and competence throughout my career.
- I shall support the advancement of knowledge and standards of practice in pharmacy.
- I shall nurture the preparation of future members of my profession.
- I shall use all opportunities to develop collaborative practice with all healthcare professionals in my environment.

In making this promise, I honour those who have supported my development as a pharmacist and commit myself never to act in a manner that is contrary to these vows.

Declaration of ### Professional Dedication

(Doctor of Podiatric Medicine)

I solemnly promise to practise the art of podiatric medicine with due care and with conduct becoming a podiatrist. I will uphold by all the means in my power the honour of the podiatry profession. I will maintain the utmost respect for human life and the dignity of every individual. The health and welfare of my patients will be my first consideration. I will assist my patients to make informed decisions that coincide with their own values and beliefs enabling individuals to control and to improve their health.

I will care for patients with competence, compassion and without prejudice. I will not permit considerations of age, disease, disability, ethnic origin, social standing, or any other factor to interfere with my duty as a podiatrist. I will protect the privacy and confidentiality of those for whom I care, and breach that confidence only when keeping it would seriously threaten their health and the safety of others.

I will remember that we do not treat an individual foot complaint, but a complex human being, whose podiatric condition may affect their general health, family and economic stability. I will consult and use the talents, skills, knowledge and expertise of other health professionals when indicated, to benefit my patients.

While respecting the traditional boundaries of my profession, I will strive to increase my knowledge, understanding and skills through lifelong learning and continuing education. Aware as I am of my professional responsibilities, I also promise as a graduate in podiatric medicine that I will seek to promote the advancement of podiatric knowledge through teaching and research. I will always endeavour to act in such a way that promotes and maintains the reputation of the profession of podiatry and that of the School of Allied Health in The University of Western Australia.

(Doctor of Optometry)

I solemnly promise to practise the art and science of Optometry with due care and with the conduct becoming an Optometrist. I commit myself to serve humanity and to support the ideals and commitments of my profession. In pursuit of excellence, I pledge to enhance the well-being of my patients by upholding the following principles:

- I will maintain the highest standards of professional behaviour, promoting the values of global citizenship, ethical practice, and culturally safe healthcare delivery.
- I will abide by the professional code of conduct, consistently upholding the highest standards of ethical practice in all aspects of my work.
- I will treat each patient as an individual, showing them unwavering respect, empathy, and understanding. I will actively listen to their concerns with patience and compassion.
- I will act in the best interests of my patients, providing patient-centred care that is based on sound clinical judgement, current evidence, and aimed at achieving the best possible outcomes.

I will strive to provide healthcare services that are inclusive. I will treat all those I serve equally, fairly, and with respect, without any discrimination based on gender, race, ethnicity, religion, culture, or political beliefs.

I will empower my patients to make informed decisions aligned with their values and beliefs.

- I will uphold patient confidentiality and respect their autonomy in healthcare choices.
- I will strive to continuously enhance my understanding and skills throughout my professional life by engaging in ongoing professional development and selfreflection.
- I will collaborate effectively with other healthcare professionals, embracing a multidisciplinary approach to meet the complex needs of my patients.
- I recognise that optometry is a global profession and that I have a role to play in promoting the health and well-being of people around the world. I will advocate for the importance of preventative eye care, sharing my knowledge and experience to contribute to the growth and advancement of the optometry profession.
- In all my professional interactions, I will strive to be a role model for others, demonstrating the values of integrity, honesty, and accountability, whilst also working to promote the broader goals of public health and social justice.

Above all else, I will do no harm to my fellow human beings and especially to my patients. I make this declaration solemnly, freely, and upon my honour.
