Bachelor of Arts

Spanning music, design, law, the humanities and the social sciences, our Bachelor of Arts provides you with lifelong, transferable skills. This is evidenced by the fact our graduates enjoy the highest average starting salaries in their field in Australia.⁴

Studying a Bachelor of Arts at UWA allows you to take courses from a range of subjects, from the earliest days of humanity and history in Archaeology, Classics and Ancient History, to cutting-edge technologies of performance and creativity in Music Studies, Architecture or Communication and Media Studies.

Tackle the great challenges facing society with a major in Philosophy, Political Science and International Relations, Criminology, Gender Studies or Anthropology and Sociology. Or, opt to develop critical cultural engagement with a major in History or English and Literary Studies. Make a difference to your community with a major in Psychology, Human Geography and Planning, or Work and Employment Relations. You could also participate in our language programs with four Asian and four European languages, which will equip you with the linguistics skills and an enhanced cultural understanding.

UWA's Bachelor of Arts sets you on the path to becoming a global citizen. Study abroad for a semester or two at one of our renowned partner universities with which we have an exchange agreement, or choose from our range of short international study units.

Why study a Bachelor of Arts?

Studying Arts equips you for every aspect of life. It enables you to discover your talents, interests and abilities, and develop them fully. You'll acquire transferable skills such as critical thinking, communication, reasoning and problem-solving. These proficiencies are all highly sought after and valued by employers, and will provide you with many future career opportunities. You could also choose to undertake the Arts Practicum as part of your course. This provides you with the chance to work on a supervised project in a workplace of your choice, while earning credit towards your degree. You'll gain practical workplace experience and industry connections, helping you gain the skills to launch a successful career.

Arts degree structure

UWA's Bachelor of Arts is one of the most diverse degrees in Western Australia with 35 majors to choose from. You don't need to choose your final major(s) until your second year so you can try out different subjects to see which ones interest you most. You could also choose a second major from within the Bachelor of Arts or from the majors available in the Bachelor of Commerce, Science or Biomedical Science degrees, giving you the opportunity to pursue your interests, no matter how different they seem.

Arts alumnus – Ian Tan

"I have always had a natural interest in both political science and history, so they were natural choices for me to study at uni. I'm enjoying the quality of the lectures and the content being studied, but my favourite aspect would be the excellent facilities here, especially after the recent refurbishment of the Social Sciences and Arts rooms.

I am also a Vice-President of the UWA Politics Club, which is a great forum for people who are interested in politics. It has a focus on domestic politics, and hosts a range of events including debates, quiz nights and mock parliaments."

Ian Tan – Bachelor of Arts (Political Science and International Relations, and History)
