Life in Perth

Perth is Australia's fourth-largest city and capital of the thriving state of Western Australia. Consistently voted one of the most liveable cities in the world by the Economist Intelligence Unit, the city offers an inspiring study environment with sunny weather, a relaxed outdoor lifestyle and beautiful natural scenery.

Perth holds international appeal for its safety, strong cultural diversity and urban sophistication. The city's cultural scene offers an array of activities, with plenty of festivals, eateries, modern bars and weekend markets adding flavour to the city and its suburbs.

A unique campus

Located by the Swan River and only minutes from Perth's city centre, UWA is often described as one of Australia's most picturesque campuses.

→ Enjoy the scenery of Matilda Bay and take part in kayaking, rowing or sailing on the Swan River.

- ← Socialise with friends at one of the many cafés.
- Enjoy an outdoor cinema experience at UWA's Somerville Auditorium.

- ← Relax in heritage-listed gardens and open courtyards.

- ↓ Try different cuisines at Guild Village, located on campus.

UWA Claremont

Just a few minutes from the main Perth campus is the University's historic Claremont campus, which is home to the UWA Centre for English Language Teaching (UWA CELT) and Taylors College, which provides foundation courses for international students.

- ↪ Experience the atmosphere at Guild Village, home to shops, food outlets, a medical centre, hairdresser, bank and other student amenities.
- ← Discover the Cultural Precinct, UWA's cultural hub that supports music, theatre, dance, literature and art exhibition programs.

UWA Albany

UWA has a high-tech education centre in the southwest town of Western Australia – a five-hour drive from Perth. Here you can experience all that regional WA has to offer while studying at university.

UWA Student Guild

Student life at UWA is dynamic, with social activities on campus organised by the representative student organisation, the UWA Student Guild.

With a reputation for being one of the most active in Australia, the Guild runs more than 150 clubs and societies that cover a range of interest areas, from anime to zoology. These groups have about 15,000 members between them and organise hundreds of events each year, spanning balls, festivals, workshops, networking opportunities, competitions and more.

The Guild also provides student representation, with staff on hand to give extra support to you on academic, financial or welfare matters affecting your study. The free Guild membership entitles students to great discounts on campus and at restaurants, shops, activities and services around Perth. uwastudentguild.com

The International Students' Service (ISS) is part of the Student Guild and looks after the welfare of international students studying at the University. ISS also puts on social and educational activities such as a trip to Rottnest and Spring Feast.

The Guild Village

The Guild Village is a hive of activity, and houses shops, food outlets, a medical centre, dentist, bank and other useful student amenities such as the Guild second-hand bookshop (where you can buy SmartRider reduced-cost travel passes). A regular marketplace that's held in the Guild Village is the place to buy inexpensive, locally made clothes, jewellery and more.

Leisure and recreation

The Cultural Precinct

The Cultural Precinct is UWA's cultural hub, supporting the music, theatre, dance, literature and exhibition programs on campus.

- Be inspired by art at the Lawrence Wilson Art Gallery
- Discover sculptures around campus
- Be moved by a free lunchtime concert at the Conservatorium of Music
- Read a new book from UWA Publishing
- Learn more about Indigenous culture through the Berndt Museum Collection
- Book performances at the Octagon and Dolphin theatres

The Cultural Precinct also supports broader arts and cultural events that take place throughout the year, including collaborations with the Perth Festival.

Facilities

UWA brings together heritage architecture and state-of-the-art teaching and research facilities to provide you with an ideal learning environment.

As a student, you can enjoy a range of recreational amenities and modern facilities, including lecture and performance theatres, tutorial spaces, studios, laboratories and more, which ensure you feel inspired to pursue your personal interests and career goals while studying.

Indian Ocean Marine Research Centre (IOMRC)

UWA houses IOMRC, the largest marine research capability in the Indian Ocean Rim – a multimillion-dollar facility that will enable Australia to expand international research.

J Robin Warren Library

Named after Professor (John) Robin Warren, co-recipient of the Nobel Prize for Medicine in 2005 along with Professor Barry J Marshall, this facility is a state-of-the-art hub where researchers, students and medical practitioners can collaborate, expand their knowledge and enhance research and teaching excellence in Western Australia.

Oral Health Centre of WA

In partnership with the Western Australian Government, UWA has an oral health centre that offers students the most modern teaching and clinical services available.

Barry J Marshall Library

This library is UWA's hub for science students and researchers. Named after the University's Nobel Prize-winning professor, it has soundproofed study rooms, multimedia suites and a café on site.

Bayliss Building

Home to the School of Molecular Sciences, this five-storey building is a thriving centre for world-class research, with advanced labs on every level. It's also the largest building on the UWA campus and features an impressive DNA double-helix design.

Clinical Training and Education Centre (CTEC)

CTEC is Australia's premier medical and surgical skills training centre and one of the most advanced medical technology complexes in the world. Students are taught in the interactive hospital-style setting using cutting-edge simulations.

Reid Library

With more than a million books, UWA's Reid Library is the largest academic library in Western Australia. If you can't find what you're looking for here, there are several specialist-subject libraries around campus, including law, music, medical and dental, and more.

Rosemarie Nathanson Financial Markets Trading Room

As Australia's largest university trading room, this award-winning facility gives students access to more than 400 global markets and features 50 financial terminals, 160 monitors and access to markets, newsfeeds and even tweets in order to demonstrate and explore how these interact and affect prices.

IQX

Launched in March 2018, IQX is Western Australia's most exciting new innovation and co-working space, powered by the UWA Innovation Quarter and Business Foundations. IQX offers special access to UWA graduate and alumni-owned enterprises.

Opening 2020

EZONE UWA

Featuring a network of flexible teaching, research and industry-engagement spaces, EZONE UWA Student Hub is designed to deliver outstanding graduates and innovative solutions in the fields of engineering and mathematical sciences.

EZONE UWA Student Hub will provide students with an unparalleled learning experience, embrace new teaching and interactive learning models, support our researchers to uncover solutions to the world's greatest challenges, and create a vibrant, innovative space for industry, community and alumni engagement. It is expected to open to students in Semester 1, 2020.

ezone.uwa.edu.au

School of Indigenous Studies

A brand-new, purpose-built facility for students and staff is in the works for the School of Indigenous Studies. First established on campus in 1988 as the Centre for Aboriginal Programs, increased enrolments over the past decade have caused the School to outgrow its current accommodation in Shenton House.

Planning is now under way for a new building in the southern precinct of the UWA Perth campus, overlooking Matilda Bay. Once complete, the facility will assist in achieving the School's aim to achieve excellence and equity in all aspects of higher education for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Supporting you

As an international student at UWA, you are supported by our Student Services team. These people are your main point of contact and can provide you with a wide range of services.

They are available to assist with any issues and concerns relating to your welfare throughout your studies at UWA. Contact them at help-international@uwa.edu.au.

Transition Services assists all undergraduate and postgraduate students with their transition to university life through comprehensive orientation activities. The Transition Adviser and the Manager of Transition Services are key points of contact for students seeking information and help during their transition. Staff are available to assist students with timetable issues and first-level course advice, and can direct students to the right supports to help with their transition. transition.uwa.edu.au

The UniMentor program provides comprehensive transition support to commencing international students by matching them with a UniMentor prior to their arrival at UWA and engaging them through social activities and excursions. Mentors provide support and advice about university life and assist students in becoming familiar with their surroundings. unimentor.uwa.edu.au

STUDYSmarter is a free academic advice and support service offering support and resources for all undergraduate and postgraduate students at UWA. Staff can help you develop the writing, research, English language, maths and stats skills you need to excel in your university studies. studysmarter.uwa.edu.au

Health and wellbeing

If you have a disability, medical or mental-health condition that affects your ability to study, the UniAccess team can assist you according to your individual needs. Services include alternative exam arrangements, establishing reasonable adjustments that you may need due to your medical condition/disability, library resource rooms, and individual assistance with orientation and access. All services are free. uniaccess.uwa.edu.au

Located on the second floor of the Guild Village, UWA's Medical Centre provides convenient, confidential and comprehensive medical care to students and staff of the University.

International students with Allianz or Medibank cards are directly billed to their insurance companies. uwa.edu.au/medical-science

Counselling is available for students with academic or personal concerns. Psychologists with the service understand the issues faced by university students and offer free confidential counselling. Seeking assistance earlier can help reduce the likelihood of your concerns having an impact on your academic success and overall sense of wellbeing. counselling.uwa.edu.au

For students with family commitments, the UWA Early Learning Centre can provide either part-time or full-time day care for children aged from six weeks to five years. childcare.uwa.edu.au

There are Christian and Muslim Chaplains who are committed to supporting you in the multifaith environment of UWA. They are available to help staff and students connect with what they need, whether religious or not. spirituallife.uwa.edu.au

Starting your journey

Here to help

The International Student Support team provides a range of services to international students with the aim of making them comfortable in a new study and living environment.

Money matters

Compared to other major cities around the world, living and studying in Perth is a smart decision for international students.

One of Australia's most affordable capital cities

Perth is more affordable than Adelaide, Brisbane, Melbourne and Sydney, according to the Economist Intelligence Unit's Worldwide Cost of Living Survey 2018.

study.uwa.edu.au/cost-of-living

Cost of living

The annual cost of living in Perth depends on your lifestyle and the type of accommodation you choose, however AUD$450–$600 per week is generally sufficient for most single students to live comfortably (this does not include tuition fees or medical cover). Consider extra funds to cover various items such as airfares and textbooks. There may also be ancillary fees applicable to your course.

Working in Australia as an international student

Under the terms of a student visa, once an international student has commenced their course, they may work up to 40 hours per fortnight while their course is in session, and unlimited hours during scheduled course breaks.

border.gov.au

Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF)

The UWA Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF) is a compulsory fee that directly benefits all UWA students. The fee is used to develop and provide a range of recreational facilities together with social, education and representation activities and services.

study.uwa.edu.au/fees-scholarships

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection requires international students applying for a student visa to have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the entire duration of their student visa.

This is not applicable to students from Norway and Sweden, who are covered under a separate arrangement.

OSHC is offered by a number of providers. You may obtain OSHC from the provider of your choice.

study.uwa.edu.au/international-health

The University of Western Australia has a 'preferred provider' agreement with Allianz Global Assistance. On acceptance and payment of your offer, UWA will arrange health cover with Allianz Global Assistance for the duration of your student visa.

For information on the University's agreement with Allianz Global Assistance, refer to study.uwa.edu.au/international-health

Postgraduate scholarships

There is a range of postgraduate scholarships to attract and support talented students.

For detailed information, visit scholarships.uwa.edu.au/future-students/postgrad.

UWA's funding opportunities include:

UWA International Postgraduate Research Scholarships

The purpose of the UWA International Postgraduate Research Scholarships are to attract top quality international postgraduate students to the University and to support Australia's research effort. Successful applicants can expect to become members of a research team working under the direction of senior researchers and in an area which has attracted resources. These scholarships are funded by The University of Western Australia and provide international tuition fees, Overseas Student Health Cover and a living allowance stipend of AUD30,000 per annum.

scholarships.uwa.edu.au/futurestudents/postgrad/international

International coursework scholarships (funded by UWA)

These scholarships are awarded by the University to assist and encourage international students to undertake postgraduate coursework studies in a particular faculty or specific discipline at UWA. Scholarships are awarded to students who have achieved academic excellence in their previous studies. Details of the scholarships available can be found at study.uwa.edu.au/international-students/fees-and-scholarships/UWA-funded-scholarships

Australia Awards (funded by the Australian Government)

Australia Awards are prestigious international scholarships and fellowships funded by the Australian Government, offering high-achieving students the opportunity to undertake study, research and professional development. Categories include:

- Scholarships and Fellowships
- Leadership Program
- Fellowships (administered by ACIAR)

australiaawards.gov.au

Sponsorships (funded by international governments, universities and other organisations)

UWA works with a broad range of governments and organisations in the provision of funding arrangements for international students at UWA.

Funding of the sponsorship is usually from an organisation within the student's home country.

Forrest Research Foundation Scholarships

Scholarships are offered across all five Western Australian universities to outstanding students who wish to undertake high-quality research and enrol in a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) at a Western Australian university.

These prestigious scholarships provide international tuition fees, Overseas Student Health Cover, accommodation at Forrest Hall, a living allowance stipend of $30,000 per annum, and a research and travel allowance of $13,000.

forrestresearch.org.au

UWA China Scholarships

The China Scholarship Council (CSC) and UWA offer postgraduate research scholarships each year to students from the People's Republic of China who intend to undertake a Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree at UWA.

The Dean's Excellence in Science PhD Scholarships

The Dean's Excellence in Science PhD Scholarships are awarded to academically outstanding international and domestic students wishing to undertake a research doctorate (PhD) in the Faculty of Science. These scholarships provide international tuition fees, Overseas Student Health Cover, a living allowance stipend of $40,000 per annum, travel allowance of $5,000 per annum and a research operating allowance of $5,000 per annum.

The Dean's Excellence in Arts, Business, Law and Education PhD Scholarships

The Dean's Excellence in Arts, Business, Law and Education PhD Scholarships are awarded to academically outstanding international students. These scholarships provide international tuition fees, Overseas Student Health Cover, and a living allowance stipend of $33,000 per annum.

English Language Bridging Scholarship

The UWA English Language Bridging Scholarship is a 10-week pre-course English Language program, offered free of charge to selected students who have been offered a PhD place at UWA, and have not quite achieved the UWA English entry requirement. The scholarship includes 10 weeks' English tuition at UWA's Centre for English Language Teaching and a stipend of AUD450 per week for up to 12 weeks.

Accommodation at UWA

We understand how important it is to find good-quality accommodation close to the UWA campus. There are many options available to suit your individual needs, and guaranteed accommodation is offered to all new full-time students. For details, visit study.uwa.edu.au/student-life/accommodation/guaranteed-accommodation

Living on campus

UWA's five residential colleges – University Hall, St Catherine's College, St George's College, St Thomas More College and Trinity Residential College – provide more than just a room. Each offers a world-class living and learning environment only a few minutes away from campus. Make lifelong friends from across Australia and around the globe, and enjoy a lifestyle that includes meals, internet, all your utilities and academic support, as well as social, cultural and sporting activities and programs.

You can apply up to 12 months before you want to live on campus. There is no deadline, but we recommend applying as early as possible – you don't have to wait until you receive an offer from UWA.

- (1) The fees overview should be read in conjunction with each college's fee schedule. Prices quoted are based on 2019 standard single room rates; additional room types are also available. Weekly fees vary depending on the room type, length of stay and additional inclusions. Fees for 2020 will be available late 2019; check the individual college websites for the latest and most comprehensive information.
- (2) The weekly fee includes 14 meals per week for University Hall, and 16 meals per week for St Thomas More College. Meal packages can be upgraded at an additional cost. All other colleges' rates are inclusive of 21 meals per week.
- (3) Standard yearly fee includes accommodation, meals, utilities, cleaning, access to communal college facilities, plus a variety of programs and activities offered throughout the year. Other upfront fees may apply, depending on the college or room type allocated. Refer to the individual college websites for full fee schedules.
- (4) Limited shared-room options are also available at St Catherine's College and St George's College on request, subject to availability.

Living off campus

UWA owns and manages a group of houses, units and studio apartments, collectively known as Crawley Village. They are available for UWA students to rent, and are offered either unfurnished or with partial furnishings.

Properties are located within walking distance of the UWA campus, shops, cafés and restaurants, banks and other amenities, and are ideally suited to postgraduate students or students with families.

You can rent an apartment, unit or house on your own or you can share with others. Whether you choose to rent a UWA-owned property or one that is privately or commercially listed, please note that you take full responsibility for the property and sign a rental contract.

As a guide, the average cost of renting or leasing an unfurnished one- or two-bedroom unit close to UWA is between AUD$265 and AUD$500 per week. There are also upfront costs to consider, such as a bond or security deposit, and utility connection fees. Other costs, such as electricity and/or gas, telephone and food, are usually not included in the weekly rent.

UWA Housing Database

UWA Accommodation provides an online housing database for students. International students who have been offered a place at UWA, but have not yet enrolled, can still create an account and access the database, which includes listings by UWA students or staff members who have a vacant property or room available to rent.

accommodation.uwa.edu.au/housing-database

Perth City student accommodation

Students wishing to live closer to Perth City have two new purpose-built student accommodation options, endorsed by UWA. Campus Perth and The Boulevard (by The Student Housing Company) offer a wide range of private and shared room options; you'll also have access to a variety of social spaces and on-site support. Both are located in Northbridge, Perth's vibrant social and cultural precinct, and close to public transport.

“The highlight of my exchange experience was meeting new people from all over the globe, particularly my group of friends who I am still in contact with, despite us all living in different parts of the world.”

The prospect of living out of home for an extended period of time, as well as being away from my friends and family, was both daunting and exciting, but I encourage other students to step out of their comfort zones and test their limits. I achieved a greater sense of independence, improved my communication skills and opened myself up to new opportunities I wouldn't normally have had the chance to experience at home.”

“For me, the personal highlight was experiencing campus culture in a university town. This is a concept not really found anywhere in Australia, so it was very warming to live in a community where everything is aimed at campus life and the student population. Life at UIUC was the quintessential college experience for me: living in a dorm, weekend trips and spring break. But most importantly, wrapped around all these experiences was a newfound group of friends, heralding from every corner of the globe to share them with. Exchange was a hugely formative experience for me and stands out as a true highlight of my time at UWA.”

Connecting you to industry

At UWA you'll not only study towards a degree, you'll also have the opportunity to gain valuable experience for your future career.

For some degrees, such as medicine, engineering and architecture, you'll be required to complete professional placements, but we also provide the chance for you to gain work experience even if your qualification doesn't call for it.

We have strong partnerships with a range of organisations to provide you with practical, real-world experiences, in addition to valuable professional networking opportunities. This hands-on learning approach is highly valued by employers and ensures you're career-ready. These partnerships enable you to take part in a number of activities, including:

Internships for credit

Placements or internships are arranged as part of your degree. They're usually one day a week in a supervised workplace or full-time over the winter and summer breaks, run from 80 to 100 hours in total and can be anything from getting a feel for a legitimate working environment to participating in live projects. These practicums are available through Arts, Commerce and Science degrees.

careers.uwa.edu.au/wil

Not-for-credit work experience

If your degree doesn't award credit for work experience, you can still take advantage of our network of industry connections to find uncredited placements, usually as internships or holiday work, for a set number of hours.

A community of entrepreneurs

Bloom provides young entrepreneurs mentorship, skill-focused events and an open working space where they can flourish. UWA is proud to be a Gold Member of Bloom.

Mentoring

The Career Mentor Link program will connect you with an industry professional for one-on-one advice and helps develop your skills so you can transition smoothly from university into the workplace.

careers.uwa.edu.au/cml

Service learning units

These units are another way to gain experience, and involve unpaid work with not-for-profit, community or government services. Some can earn you academic credit as well as the chance to put your degree skills to use.

The McCusker Centre for Citizenship provides this kind of learning. Established in 2015, it offers all UWA students structured, quality internships with not-for-profit, community and government organisations locally, regionally and globally. Students will be matched based on their application and the internship opportunities available, and you can gain academic credit.

mccuskercentre.uwa.edu.au

Guild Volunteering

Guild Volunteering gets you off campus and into the real world to start making a difference. Broaden your mind, meet new people and develop skills in an area you're interested in. You may also find that some volunteering is eligible for your supplementary academic transcript.

volunteering.guild.uwa.edu.au

Work placements for professional accreditation

These professional practicums enable you to apply theory in practice and develop competencies that will assist in your future career. Successful completion of these practicums is required in order for you to graduate.

IQ Academy

IQ Academy is a free six-week innovation experience that provides the enterprise skills to create your own job or accelerate your entry into full-time work by 17 months. IQ Academy is for students across all disciplines who want to develop their own new idea, or join a team to work on someone else's.

“As part of my degree I got the opportunity to do an internship with UWA’s Wave Energy Centre. That experience was great since I was exposed to real-world problems outside of the classroom! I also got several opportunities to attend conferences and meet professionals in the field, which will be invaluable for my future.”

Global networks of knowledge and research

UWA partners world-class lecturers and researchers with the teaching technologies of tomorrow to deliver students a leading environment for learning. A strong focus on knowledge and research capabilities means that, as a graduate of UWA, you will be at the forefront of a rapidly evolving world and ready to succeed in your career of choice.

High-quality research

With more than 75 research institutes and centres, UWA fosters links with local, national and international industries and governments. The strength of our research output makes us appealing to researchers of international standing, many of whom head major research centres with global connections. This means that, as a student, you'll benefit from the knowledge and expertise of the University's staff, with networking opportunities that can lead to career possibilities around the world. Together, UWA's high-calibre researchers and students are solving some of today's most critical and challenging problems, from spinal-cord injury repair to ensuring the stability of large offshore oil and gas platforms.

Research with international impact

Exploring uncharted waters on dry land

A new 26-tonne centrifuge at UWA allows researchers to test the suitability of deep-water structures, using scaled models to demonstrate how offshore foundations work under different conditions. This one-of-a-kind facility gives the University a chance to provide valuable data to companies such as Woodside, Shell, Fugro and Lloyd's Register.

Bringing an end to superbugs

Our researchers have led a worldwide team to map the 3D structure of the EptA protein. EptA helps deadly bacteria hide from antibiotics and the immune system, creating multi-drug resistance. This research breakthrough could unlock the defences of superbugs and open the door to saving millions of lives.

Discovering gravitational waves

A group of scientists from UWA, led by Professor David Blair and working with an international project team, has opened a window to the cosmos by confirming a major prediction of Albert Einstein's general theory of relativity. For the last seven years, the group has worked to detect ripples in the fabric of space-time and prove that the black holes of Einstein's theory are out there.

UWA is home to six highly cited researchers.

The research of these scholars is recognised as among the most highly cited in the world.

Spotlight on UWA's Nobel Laureate

Professor Barry Marshall was awarded a Nobel Prize in 2005, for his revolutionary co-discovery of the bacterium Helicobacter pylori, which causes stomach ulcers. Professor Marshall continues to treat patients and lead UWA research teams within the Marshall Centre for Infectious Diseases Research and Training, of which he is a director.

Choose your postgraduate degree

We offer a range of options for postgraduate study. From professional and coursework degrees to independent research, you'll find a style of learning to match your needs.

Postgraduate professional degrees

A postgraduate professional degree is a master's or doctorate-level course, taken upon completion of a bachelor's degree (or equivalent). Upon successful completion, it qualifies you to enter a profession. UWA offers a range of postgraduate professional degrees, including:

- Accounting Master of Professional Accounting
- Architecture Master of Architecture
- Audiology Master of Clinical Audiology or Master of Clinical Audiology/PhD
- Dentistry Doctor of Dental Medicine
- Engineering Master of Professional Engineering
- Landscape Architecture Master of Landscape Architecture
- Law Juris Doctor
- Medicine Doctor of Medicine
- Pharmacy Master of Pharmacy
- Podiatric Medicine Doctor of Podiatric Medicine
- Psychology Master of Clinical Psychology/PhD; Master of Clinical Neuropsychology/PhD; Master of Industrial and Organisational Psychology; Master of Industrial and Organisational Psychology/PhD
- Social Work Master of Social Work
- Teaching Master of Teaching (Early Childhood); Master of Teaching (Primary); Master of Teaching (Secondary)
- Translation Master of Translation Studies

Coursework degree

Our postgraduate coursework degrees help you develop a thorough understanding of an area of study, diversify your educational background or obtain specific vocational training.

Coursework degrees include

- Graduate certificates
- Graduate diplomas
- Master's by coursework
- Master's by coursework and dissertation
- Clinical doctorates
- Professional doctorates

Research degrees

Students keen to contribute knowledge and develop important skills or explore an area of personal interest may consider a research degree. These involve a project of supervised but independent enquiry at an advanced level, resulting in the submission of a research thesis (or equivalent), which is examined by experts in the field.

Research degrees include

- Master's by thesis and coursework
- Master of Philosophy (MPhil)
- Professional doctorates
- Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)
- Master of Research

Articulation/articulated course

Articulation may be available within certain sets of courses. It is a sequence of related postgraduate courses in a specific discipline area, offering progression from one course level to another with credit granted for all units passed to the appropriate standard in the previous level. Graduate certificates, graduate diplomas and/or master's degrees may form part of this sequence. See table to the right for more information.

Business School

The UWA Business School is one of the premier business schools in the Asia-Pacific region. The School uses world-class teaching, thought-leading research and corporate associations to provide real-world experience, hands-on learning and industry networking, giving students a career edge in their field.

We are one of only eight institutions in Australia to hold international accreditation from both EQUIS (the European Quality Improvement System) and AACSB (the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business). This ensures our degrees are recognised by employers worldwide, and guarantees the quality of our teaching, research and other operational areas.

Our major corporate supporters include BHP, EY, KPMG, Perth Energy, Wesfarmers, Woodside and more. These industry links enable us to provide a richer education for our students and ensure our programs are relevant and valuable to industry.

Unless otherwise stated, all courses are held on the Perth campus.

study.uwa.edu.au/m/teaching-primary

UWA course code: 31520

CRICOS code: 077502G

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$31,600

Course description

This course prepares university graduates for a rewarding career in teaching. By studying a teaching degree at UWA you gain valuable practical experience in our many partner schools and work with outstanding lecturers who integrate theory and practice across learning areas.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Early Childhood
- Primary

Early Childhood

Early-childhood teachers play a critical role in preparing young children for lifelong learning, personal wellbeing and participation in society. This course places a strong emphasis on in-depth knowledge of the research, theory and practical skills required of educators in early childhood settings, from birth to the lower primary years.

The Master of Teaching (Early Childhood) qualifies you to work in government and non-government schools, both in Australia and internationally, as well as in a range of other early childhood settings such as childcare centres.

Primary

Primary teachers are pivotal in helping children build strong foundations and confidence in their learning. This course provides in-depth knowledge on how to support children in their development of knowledge, understanding and skills across a range of learning areas. The Master of Teaching (Primary) qualifies you to teach in primary schools.

Requirements

- (1)
 - (e) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification; and
 - (f) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 60 per cent
 - (g) at least one year of the bachelor's degree relevant to one or more learning areas in the Early Childhood or Primary school curriculum for applicants who wish to major in Early Childhood or Primary Teaching respectively.
- (2) Applicants who have a bachelor's degree in education, or an equivalent qualification, are not eligible for admission.
- (3) Before admission, international students must obtain a Criminal Record Check from their country of origin or recent residence.

English language requirement: Applicants with qualifications from institutions where English is not the medium of instruction must provide evidence of English language competence, with applicants presenting with the IELTS Academic requiring an overall score of at least 7.5, with no sub-score less than 7.0, and no less than 8.0 in speaking and listening. Applicants presenting with the Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) require an overall grade of B or above, with a score of 'exceptional' for listening and speaking, and at least 'good' for reading and writing.

Applicants with qualifications gained wholly in English from countries other than Australia, New Zealand, the Republic of Ireland, Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States of America must provide evidence of English language competence in accordance with the requirements of the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia.

An English bridging course is not regarded as evidence of English language competence.

Note: Applicants must also provide a satisfactory non-academic assessment (personal statement) at the point of application. A National Criminal Record Check and a Working with Children Clearance must be presented to the Graduate School of Education before any student undertakes a professional practice unit.

Master of Teaching (Secondary)

study.uwa.edu.au/m/teaching-secondary

UWA course code: 32550

CRICOS code: 095238C

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$31,600

Course description

This course prepares university graduates for a rewarding career in teaching. Candidates must have a degree with a major in the subject that they want to teach and which can be found in the school curriculum. This course aims to graduate highly skilled professionals who have the key practical skills required for effective secondary teaching, informed by current theory and research. As there is a severe shortage of secondary Mathematics and Physics teachers in Australian schools, we particularly encourage students with qualifications in those areas to consider a career in teaching.

Requirements

- (1)
 - (h) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification; and
 - (i) a major relevant to secondary teaching curriculum majors offered by UWA; and
 - (j) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 60 per cent.
- (2) Applicants who have an Australian teaching qualification or equivalent as recognised by UWA are not normally eligible for admission.
- (3) Before admission, international students must obtain a Criminal Record Check from their country of origin or recent residence.

English language requirement: Applicants with qualifications from institutions where English is not the medium of instruction must provide evidence of English language competence, with applicants presenting with the IELTS Academic requiring an overall score of at least 7.5, with no sub-score less than 7.0, and no less than 8.0 in speaking and listening. Applicants presenting with the Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) require an overall grade of B or above, with a score of 'exceptional' for listening and speaking, and at least 'good' for reading and writing.

Applicants with qualifications gained wholly in English from countries other than Australia, New Zealand, the Republic of Ireland, Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States of America must provide evidence of English language competence in accordance with the requirements of the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia.

An English bridging course is not regarded as evidence of English language competence.

Note: Applicants must also provide a satisfactory non-academic assessment (personal statement) at the point of application. A National Criminal Record Check and a Working with Children Clearance must be presented to the Graduate School of Education before any student undertakes a professional practice unit.

English language requirements

Unless otherwise specified, IELTS (Academic) overall score minimum of 6.5, no band less than 6.0 (must include Academic Reading and Writing modules). However, our English language requirements vary across courses. For the most up-to-date information visit study.uwa.edu.au/elc.

Law School

The UWA Law School has a proud history of more than 90 years of excellence in legal education, scholarship and research. As a graduate of the UWA Law School you join the ranks of more than 7000 alumni who have achieved extraordinary success in a range of careers. UWA graduates include solicitors, barristers and magistrates; District, Supreme and High Court judges; politicians, including a former Australian prime minister; CEOs; in-house counsel of large national and international corporations; banking, finance and taxation specialists; environmentalists; human rights activists; and leaders of national and international NGOs.

The UWA Law School's suite of postgraduate courses aims to meet the needs of law and non-law graduates wishing to either become a lawyer or develop specialist legal expertise. Our flagship course, the Juris Doctor, prepares students with the knowledge and skills necessary to become the lawyer they want to be and that the world needs.

All courses are held on the Perth campus.

"The course helped me gain a larger perspective of international law, which I can use in my current job, where I deal with international tenders and contracts. The new knowledge I acquired from my course has also increased the possibilities to work abroad."

Master of Commerce and Master of International Commercial Law

study.uwa.edu.au/m/commerce-commercial-law

UWA course code: 43550

CRICOS code: 088011C

Duration: 2–2.5 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$37,500

Course description

Through the cross-disciplinary expertise of the Law School and the Business School, graduates have the opportunity to attain two sought-after qualifications in a shorter time frame and less than if they were undertaking the two courses individually.

By undertaking both degrees you learn how to conduct commerce and gain an understanding of the legal framework for how commerce is regulated, enabling you to gain a 360 degree perspective and positioning you as an authority in the field.

Requirements

Applicants must meet the admission requirements for both the Master of Commerce (see page 38) and Master of International Commercial Law (see page 46). Students who complete 48 points of credit towards the Master of Commerce are not required to meet the IELTS of 7.5 for the Master of International Commercial Law.

Course description

The Master of Research is a program of independent, supervised research that can be taken in any discipline for which appropriate supervision is available and is assessed solely on the basis of a thesis. It is a highly flexible course that mirrors the structure and breadth of the Master of Philosophy.

The Master of Research is only open to students who are currently enrolled in an Honours degree in Australian universities.

Conservatorium of Music

As one of Australia's leading music schools, we create the future leaders of the arts community. Our postgraduate programs enhance musical skills and knowledge, and prepare students for the next level of their musical careers. Many graduates work as professional musicians, composers and teachers in communities around the world.

The Conservatorium of Music encourages interdisciplinary, interstate and international collaborations, and undertakes presentations, publications, recordings and performances in specialty research areas.

Unless otherwise stated, all courses are held on the Perth campus.

"I came to study at UWA because the Conservatorium of Music was ranked among the best in the country. It also has a reputation for producing some of the most talented musicians and industry leaders in the country, who represent Australia both nationally and internationally. I knew I wanted to make a big impact in music in Australia and UWA would enable me to pursue this dream. Studying music within a world-class university also enabled me to tinker with my interests in other art forms (English, art history) alongside my music studies. This has made me a more rounded musician, ready for the diverse demands the profession throws at me."

Dr Ashley Smith
Conservatorium of Music graduate and lecturer

Duration: 0.5 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee: AUD$16,550

Course description

The Graduate Certificate in Strategic Communication provides a preliminary overview of the skills, knowledge and capabilities required to participate in the contemporary global communications environment across industry, government agencies and community organisations. You gain skills and understanding relevant to communication strategy development, digital media and organisational communication from a global media perspective.

Requirements

- (a)
- (iii) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
 - (iv) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent in the Level 3 units of a major;
- or
- (b) a level or duration of education, professional experience and/or demonstrable life skills considered by UWA to be sufficient to permit satisfactory completion of the course.

2019 tuition fee: AUD$33,100

Course description

The Graduate Diploma in Strategic Communication focuses on the advanced skills, knowledge and capabilities required to participate in the contemporary global communications environment in industry, government agencies and community organisations. You develop skills across a range of media relevant to developing sound communication strategy in a global media context.

Requirements

- (a)
- (v) a relevant bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
 - (vi) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent in the Level 3 units of a relevant major;
- or
- (b)

coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$33,100

Course description

The Master of Strategic Communication provides you with advanced skills, knowledge and capabilities required to participate in the contemporary global communications environment.

Through practical and analytical engagement, you gain advanced skills and in-depth understanding relevant to a broad range of communications and media roles; capabilities in developing effective communication strategies in a global digital media context; and skills in managing communications projects.

Professional placement

The course includes a work placement component where students apply knowledge in industry environments.

Requirements

- (a)
- (iii) a relevant bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
 - (iv) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent in the Level 3 units of a relevant major;

(b)

- (i) a Graduate Certificate in Strategic Communication or Graduate Diploma in Strategic Communication, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
- (ii) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent.

Graduate Certificate in Public Policy*

UWA course code: 42280

CRICOS code: 095760G

Duration: 1 year

Intake period: February, July
(part-time only)

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee: AUD$18,900

Course description

The Graduate Certificate in Public Policy is designed to give graduate students an understanding of the role of the government in economic activity and public policy decision making. It focuses on how the government interacts with the economy through, for example: economic growth, stability, taxation, infrastructure provision, regulation, health, defence, education, and social security. Students who successfully complete the graduate certificate may be eligible to progress into the Master of Public Policy with full credit for completed units.

Requirements

- (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
- (b)
- (i) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 60 per cent; or
 - (iii) a valid Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT) score of at least 550¹; or
 - (iv) at least five years of relevant, documented professional experience considered by UWA (following an interview and assessment process) to be sufficient to permit satisfactory completion of the course.

* This course is only available to international students who are not holding a student visa.

The Master of Research is only open to students who are currently enrolled in an Honours degree in Australian universities.

Faculty of Engineering and Mathematical Sciences

The Faculty of Engineering and Mathematical Sciences attracts and supports talented teaching and research staff who are committed to innovating in their field. Well established links between the Faculty and industry mean our graduates enjoy excellent career prospects.

Renowned as a leader in high-impact research with very close ties to leading industry groups, the Faculty's research teams benefit from global collaborations and attract significant grants from the nation's peak research funding body, the Australian Research Council (ARC). Two leading offshore oil and gas research groups have secured nearly $10 million in funding from ARC, as well as a matching contribution of a further $10 million from over 10 industry partners, which will support new facilities and training centres.

Multimillion dollar investment from industry for key academic positions has enabled the appointment of several Professional Chair positions. The Faculty currently have the CSIRO-UWA Chair in Complex Engineering Systems, The Fugro Chair in Geotechnics, The Shell Chair in Offshore Engineering, as well as Chairs in Engineering Education and Ocean Engineering.

A new infrastructure project, EZONE UWA, will create a unique teaching and learning hub further supporting quality teaching, learning and collaboration to benefit students, researchers and staff in the future.

Unless otherwise stated, all courses are held on the Perth campus.

Master of Data Science

study.uwa.edu.au/mds

UWA course code: 62530

CRICOS code: 093310E

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or
coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$38,300

Course description

The Master of Data Science provides students with the knowledge and skills to understand and apply appropriate analytical methodologies to transform the way an organisation achieves its objectives; to deal effectively with large data management tasks, to master the statistical and machine learning foundations on which data analytics is built; and to evaluate and communicate the effectiveness of new technologies.

Requirements

- (a) a bachelor's degree completed with the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent;
and
(b) prior studies in mathematics equivalent to at least Mathematics Applications ATAR.

The course duration may be reduced to 1.5 years for students who have completed prior studies in a related area. Recognition of prior learning and/or application for credit (advanced standing) will be assessed by the University on a case-by-case basis at the time of application.

Master of Engineering in Oil and Gas study.uwa.edu.au/m/oil-gas

UWA course code: 62520

CRICOS code: 083861A

Duration: 1–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,800

Course description

This course is aimed at engineering graduates who are seeking a career in the global oil and gas industry.

The course provides you with industry-relevant, advanced knowledge about technical implementation and leadership in the global oil and gas industry. A particular focus is placed on natural gas, both its extraction and subsequent conversion to liquefied natural gas (LNG).

You also develop skills at a professional level in a range of key areas including petroleum engineering, gas economics, investment strategies and liabilities, work-flow concepts and current production and processing technologies.

Requirements

An engineering degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA, with the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent.

The course duration may be reduced to one year for students who have completed prior studies in a related area. Recognition of prior learning and/or application for credit (advanced standing) will be assessed by the University on a case-by-case basis at the time of application.

Master of Information Technology

study.uwa.edu.au/m/info-technology

UWA course code: 62510

CRICOS code: 083866G

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$38,300

Course description

The course is designed for students and professionals with a tertiary degree seeking to develop specialist skills in computing and software engineering. It is ideal for students and professionals who wish to change direction or expand their skill set to pursue a career in IT. Graduates of this course have the knowledge and skills to anticipate the changing direction of IT and evaluate and communicate the effectiveness of new technologies in order to help an organisation achieve its goals and objectives.

There is a strong emphasis on applying contemporary and emerging technologies, including cloud and high-performance computing, agile web development and software project design and management.

Requirements

- (a) a bachelor's degree completed with the equivalent of a UWA weighted average of at least 65 per cent;
and
(b) prior studies in mathematics equivalent to at least Mathematics Applications ATAR.

The course duration may be reduced to 1.5 years for students who have completed prior studies in a related area. Recognition of prior learning and/or application for credit (advanced standing) will be assessed by the University on a case-by-case basis at the time of application.

Master of Ocean Leadership

study.uwa.edu.au/m/ocean-leadership

UWA course code: 62540

CRICOS code: 096270F

Duration: 2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,800

Course description

The Master of Ocean Leadership provides graduates from a range of fields with ocean-related knowledge and experience across science, engineering, law and environmental management to enable them to strategically address human challenges in ocean systems and to implement solutions for the future of our coasts and seas. Students will be equipped to work in multi-disciplinary contexts to lead and contribute to effective teams.

The course is a multi-disciplinary and highly interactive program, designed to be flexible and challenging for professionals and recent graduates alike. The course will provide up-to-date knowledge about the marine environment, management and governance of the ocean, the use of new technologies in ocean engineering, data analysis and hazards.

Requirements

To be considered for admission to this course an applicant must have:

- (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
(b) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent.

Master of Professional Engineering

study.uwa.edu.au/mpe

UWA course code: 62550

CRICOS code: 081025J

Duration: 2–3 years¹

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,800

Course description

This course is for graduates who have completed undergraduate studies in engineering, mathematics or physics and who want to gain an internationally-recognised qualification to practise as a professional accredited engineer.

The course, designed in consultation with industry, equips you with both outstanding technical and leadership skills and the ability to work creatively as part of a team across the breadth of an engineering challenge in your area of specialisation.

Professional accreditation

The Master of Professional Engineering has been assessed for accreditation by Engineers Australia, the national accrediting body. The Chemical, Civil, Electronic and Electrical, Environmental, Mechanical and Mining Engineering specialisations received full accreditation in 2016–2017.

Our graduates are recognised internationally through the Washington Accord of the International Engineering Alliance. Additionally, the MPE Chemical Engineering specialisation is accredited by the Institute of Chemical Engineers (IChemE) and Software Specialisation has been provisionally accredited by the Australian Computer Society (ACS).

Professional practicum

The Master's program focuses on industry-related hands-on learning. You will complete a 12-week practicum, with at least eight weeks in an engineering environment. The remaining weeks can be undertaken in a general work environment in a capacity unrelated to your MPE specialisation, such as voluntary work or professional development.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Biomedical Engineering
- Chemical Engineering
- Civil Engineering
- Electrical and Electronic Engineering
- Environmental Engineering
- Mechanical Engineering
- Mining Engineering
- Software Engineering

Requirements

- (a) a bachelor's degree with a major in Engineering Science, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA²;

or

- (b) a bachelor's degree, completed with the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent, with prior studies in engineering, physics or mathematics;

or

- (c) completed units in the Master of Professional Engineering Preliminary course at UWA as prescribed by the Faculty.

¹ The course duration will be two to three years for graduates without previous studies in engineering or who are missing required preparation units. Recognition of prior learning and/or application for credit (advanced standing) will be assessed by the University on a case-by-case basis at the time of application.

² Students who commenced Engineering Science from 2015 and who are not in the Direct Pathway are required to achieve a UWA weighted average mark of at least 60 per cent in their bachelor's degree.

Master of Professional Engineering Preliminary study.uwa.edu.au/mpe-prelim

UWA course code: 60450

CRICOS code: 074100F

Duration: 0.5–1.5 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,800

Course description

This course will enable you to move into the professionally accredited Master of Professional Engineering if you have a bachelor's degree in a non-engineering area of study (e.g. a Bachelor of Science). It is a non-award* course ranging from one semester to 1.5 years of full-time study.

On successful completion of your studies, you may receive a conditional offer for the Master of Professional Engineering. Your course duration could be reduced if you have completed some studies in Engineering, Mathematics, Physics or Computing to an appropriate level within your undergraduate bachelor's degree.

* A non-award course is a program of study which does not lead to a formal award. It may comprise a unit or units of study from an award course and may be counted as credit towards an award course in some cases.

To be considered for admission to this course an applicant must have:

- (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
- (b) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent; and
- (c) completed Mathematics Methods ATAR, or equivalent, as recognised by UWA.

Master of Physics

study.uwa.edu.au/m/physics

UWA course code: 53560

CRICOS code: 087902J

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

The Master of Physics consists of an equal combination of advanced coursework and a research project and dissertation. The research project is undertaken as part of an internationally recognised research group. You develop a combination of high-level research, analytical and problem-solving skills that are highly valued by industry and government employers.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Astronomy and Astrophysics
- Computational Physics
- Experimental Physics
- Medical Physics
- Theoretical Physics

Professional accreditation

The Master of Physics – Medical Physics is accredited by The Australasian College of Physical Scientists and Engineers in Medicine (ACPSEM).

Requirements

- (a)
 - (i) a relevant bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
 - (ii) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent;
- or*
- (c) a relevant honours degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA.

Note: Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study related to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.

² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of Renewable and Future Energy

Course description

Advances in renewable energy technologies are driving the energy industry to transition on a national and global scale. This includes new and exciting job opportunities. A new course at UWA, the Master of Renewable and Future Energy (MRFE) solves a critical need to provide engineering professionals with relevant renewable energy skills for a ripe market.

Students will be equipped to adapt and evolve alongside industry changes. The breadth and depth covered through interdisciplinary collaborations within the Faculty offers more in-depth technical knowledge and skills to tackle the challenges and opportunities that come with an uptake of renewable energy and distributed renewable energy in microgrids.

Requirements

To be considered for this course you must have:

- (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
- (b) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 65 per cent.

Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences

The Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences offers courses, training and research opportunities in a wide range of scientific and clinical disciplines to significantly benefit the health of Australian and international communities.

As a research-oriented faculty, we encourage the lifelong adaptation and assessment of new theories, treatments and diagnostic techniques that incorporate a holistic approach to the health sciences and a more sensitive interaction with patients.

Areas of research priority are:

- Ageing and aged care
- Antimicrobial resistance
- Arthritis and musculoskeletal conditions
- Asthma
- Cancer control
- Cardiovascular health
- Dementia
- Diabetes
- Health security
- Indigenous health
- Injury prevention
- Obesity
- Maternal health in the first 200 days

³ Living Nobel Laureate and current UWA researcher.

“UWA offers one of the best Doctor of Medicine degrees in Australia, in my opinion. The early placements within the health system and the focus on independent learning and research prepare you for when you graduate and enter the field. I wanted to study medicine because I knew it would be a challenging but rewarding career for me.

The world-class facilities available to students have really enhanced my learning during the course. The Clinical Training and Evaluation Centre is one of my highlights. It provides us with medical and surgical skills training, and interactions with leaders in various medical subspecialties.

One of the most enjoyable aspects of the course is the clinical rotations in hospitals with unique opportunities to learn and develop our clinical skills, as well as being organised and effectively communicating in the workplace under the guidance of senior doctors.”

Doctor of Dental Medicine

study.uwa.edu.au/d/dental-medicine

UWA course code: 90860

CRICOS code: 089787B

Duration: 4 years

Intake period: January

Mode of study: professional practice

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$78,100

Course description

This degree provides qualified graduates with the knowledge and skills to enter the dentistry profession. Studies cover fundamental dental and medical sciences, with clinical practice modules including patient care, preventative and conservative dentistry, restorative dentistry, and child and adolescent dental health. There is early clinical contact from first year.

You actively engage in a research project in the third year, while the final year is occupied by independent but supervised practice inside and outside the Oral Health Centre of Western Australia, with additional rural and metropolitan clinical placements.

Requirements

- (1) (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and (b) the equivalent of a UWA grade point average (GPA) of at least 5.5; and (c) (i) a Graduate Medical School Admissions Test (GAMSAT²) overall score of at least 50 and no section score less than 50; or (ii) a Medical College Admission Test (MCAT²) score of at least 123/123/123/123, with an overall minimum of 492.
- (2) Invitation to attend the structured interview will be based on equal weightings under (1)(b) and (c), in alignment with the interview quota for the year.
- (3) Eligible applicants who are interviewed will be assessed based on the personal qualities considered desirable in dental practitioners and will undergo a spatial awareness test.
- (4) Admission will be awarded to the highest-ranked applicants under (1), (2) and (3) who fall within the intake quota for that year, based on equal weighting of the GAMSAT/MCAT, GPA and interview for non-rural applicants, and based on equal weighting of the GAMSAT, GPA, interview and rurality ranking for rural applicants.
- (5) Direct Pathway students are exempt from (1)(c).

English language requirement: IELTS (Academic) 7.0 (no band less than 7.0).

Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD) applications open in March and close on 31 May each year.

The Graduate Medical School Admissions Test³ and Medical College Admission Test (MCAT)² results must be submitted by 31 May each year. Students who receive the results slightly after this date are to contact the Faculty for eligibility advice.

Successful applicants receive an interview request by email. Interviews in Hong Kong, Singapore and Canada (subject to availability) usually take place from mid-July. Perth-based interviews usually take place in August and September.

A supplementary form is required in addition to the standard entry requirements. Visit uwa.edu.au/myapplication for details.

The final ranking of students entering into the Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD) is based equally on GAMSAT/MCAT, GPA and interview.

Course duration is three years if students complete the Medical Sciences major.

- 1 GAMSAT (Graduate Medical Schools Admissions Test) is held once a year in March and registration for the test usually opens in the preceding October and closes in late January/early February of the application year. GAMSAT scores are valid for two years, therefore if an applicant sits the test two years in a row, they can choose which score to use. Applicants can sit the test from their penultimate year (second last year) of bachelor's study. The GAMSAT has three sections: Reasoning in Humanities and Social Sciences, Written Communication, and Reasoning in Biological and Physical Sciences. The third section is double weighted and tests biology and chemistry to about first-year university level and physics to about Australian Year 12 level. For further information on the GAMSAT, visit gamsat.acer.edu.au
- 2 MCAT (Medical College Admission Test) is a standardised, multiple-choice examination, that assesses problem solving, critical thinking, writing skills and knowledge of science concepts and principles. Scores are reported in Verbal Reasoning, Physical Sciences, and Biological Sciences. Applicants require minimum test scores of 123/123/123/123 and an overall minimum of 492. For more information, visit aamc.org/mcat

Note: You may be required to submit IELTS upon professional registration.

UWA course code: 90870

CRICOS code: 075343A

Duration: 3 years

Intake period: January

Mode of study: professional practice master's degree (extended)

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$54,400

Course description

This course is designed to produce highly-trained and competent podiatrists who are prepared to enter clinical practice as primary-contact healthcare practitioners in the diagnosis and treatment of foot and ankle conditions. Most podiatrists work in general practice and see an interesting and wide range of patients with foot and leg problems, often associated with other medical conditions. Many podiatrists develop expertise in a specific area of podiatry, such as sports injuries, podiatric biomechanics or management of the high-risk foot.

Requirements

- (a) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and (b) the equivalent of a UWA grade point average of at least 5.0; and (c) (i) a Graduate Medical School Admissions Test³ overall score of at least 50 and no section score less than 50; or (ii) a Medical College Admission Test² score of 123/123/123/123; or (iii) completed a human biology, animal biology, physiology, pharmacology, genetics or microbiology unit at a tertiary level; and completed a chemistry or biological chemistry unit at a tertiary level.

English language requirement: IELTS (Academic) 7.0 (no band less than 7.0).

Doctor of Podiatric Medicine applications open in March and close late September. Final ranking is based on GPA. An interview is not required.

A supplementary form is required in addition to the standard entry requirements. Visit study.uwa.edu.au/d/podiatric-medicine for details.

1 GAMSAT (Graduate Medical Schools Admissions Test) is held once a year in March and registration for the test usually opens in the preceding October and closes in late January/early February of the application year. GAMSAT scores are valid for two years, therefore if an applicant sits the test two years in a row, they can choose which score to use. Applicants can sit the test from their penultimate year (second last year) of bachelor's study. The GAMSAT has three sections: Reasoning in Humanities and Social Sciences, Written Communication, and Reasoning in Biological and Physical Sciences. The third section is double weighted and tests biology and chemistry to about first-year university level and physics to about Australian Year 12 level. For further information on the GAMSAT, visit gamsat.acer.edu.au

2 MCAT (Medical College Admission Test) is a standardised, multiple-choice examination, that assesses problem solving, critical thinking, writing skills and knowledge of science concepts and principles. Scores are reported in Verbal Reasoning, Physical Sciences, and Biological Sciences. Applicants require minimum test scores of 123/123/123/123 and an overall minimum of 492. For more information, visit aamc.org/mcat

Note: You may be required to submit IELTS upon professional registration

Doctor of Podiatric Surgery

study.uwa.edu.au/d/podiatic-surgery

UWA course code: 90830

CRICOS code: 064878E

Duration: 3 years

Intake period: January

Mode of study: clinical master's (extended)

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$54,400

Course description

This course provides theoretical and clinical knowledge in podiatric surgery beyond the Bachelor of Podiatric Medicine. Topics include biostatistics, research methodology, advanced podiatric medicine, theoretical and practical aspects of elective foot surgery and/or management of the high-risk foot and patient-oriented research, including ethics and communication of research, resulting in a dissertation. Graduates are eligible for registration with the Podiatry Board of Australia as a podiatric surgeon.

Requirements

- (a) a Bachelor of Podiatric Medicine, or equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA, with a minimum GPA of 5.0 for the final two years; and
 (b) at least one year of relevant professional experience.

Entry is on a competitive basis. Applicants who meet the minimum requirements must submit a structured personal statement and letter of recommendation in order to be considered for interview.

Intake period: January

Mode of study: professional practice doctorate

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$78,100

Course description

The professional practice doctorate is for those who seek to enter the medical profession as a doctor. You will undertake a scholarly activity in one of three streams of research, coursework and/or service learning. This is done simultaneously with the core medical rotations in Internal Medicine, Surgery, Psychiatry, General Practice, Women's and Infants' Health, and Paediatrics and Child Health. Further rotations are taken in Emergency Medicine, Internal Medicine, Surgery, Cancer, Pain and Palliative Care, Anaesthetics, Rural General Practice and an elective.

Requirements

- (1)
 (c) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and
 (d) the equivalent of a UWA grade point average (GPA) of at least 5.5; and (e)
 (i) a Graduate Medical School Admissions Test (GAMSAT)¹ overall score of at least 50 and no section score less than 50; or
 (ii) a Medical College Admission Test (MCAT)² score of 123/123/123/123 with an overall minimum of 492.
 (2) Invitation to attend the structured interview will be based on equal weightings under (1)(b) and (c), in alignment with the interview quota for the year.
 (3) Eligible applicants who are interviewed will be assessed based on the personal qualities considered desirable in medical practitioners.
 (4) Admission will be awarded to the highest ranked applicants under (1), (2) and (3) who fall within the intake quota for that year, based on equal weighting of the GAMSAT/MCAT, GPA and interview.
 (5) Direct Pathway students are exempt from (1)(c).

English language requirement: IELTS (Academic) 7.0 (no band lower than 7.0). Must include academic reading and writing modules.

Doctor of Medicine (MD) applications open in March and close on 31 May each year.

The Graduate Medical School Admissions Test¹ and Medical College Admission Test (MCAT)² results must be submitted by 31 May each year. Students who will receive the results slightly after this date are to contact the Faculty for eligibility advice.

Successful applicants will receive an interview request by email. Interviews in Hong Kong, Singapore and Canada (subject to availability) usually take place from mid July. Perth-based interviews usually take place in August.

1 GAMSAT (Graduate Medical Schools Admissions Test) is held once a year in March and registration for the test usually opens in the preceding October and closes in late January/early February of the application year. GAMSAT scores are valid for two years, therefore if an applicant sits the test two years in a row, they can choose which score to use. Applicants can sit the test from their penultimate year (second last year) of bachelor's study. The GAMSAT has three sections: Reasoning in Humanities and Social Sciences, Written Communication, and Reasoning in Biological and Physical Sciences. The third section is double weighted and tests biology and chemistry to about first-year university level and physics to about Australian Year 12 level. PRACTICUM PLACEMENTS

UWA is known for its strong industry connections, with many of our students undertaking their practicums with the following organisations:

- Cancer Council WA
- Telethon Kids Institute
- Spine and Limb Foundation
- PricewaterhouseCoopers
- Department of Health WA
- North Metropolitan Health Unit
- WA Centre for Rural Health

DISSERTATION (24-POINT)

The 24-point dissertation is the equivalent of a semester of full-time study and involves preparing original research under supervision.

As a dissertation research student, under supervision, you will develop a paper for publication in a scientific journal. The dissertation gives you practice and experience in defining a clear research question, preparing a formal research proposal, conducting a review of a body of scientific literature and formal writing at a professional standard.

You have the option to choose and develop your own topic, or choose from a list of available research projects. Projects relevant to your work may be suitable. Once you have selected a dissertation topic, your research plan must be approved by the Honours and Dissertation Coordinator.

PROJECT (12-POINT)

This substantive project can be completed as an alternative to the 24-point dissertation. The project gives you practice and experience in synthesising the skills you learnt during the MPH.

You can choose to plan a research project by conducting a review of a body of scientific literature, writing a literature review and detailed project proposal, development of instruments, an ethics committee application and preparing an analysis plan. Alternatively, you can undertake a systematic review of the literature around a specific management issue in the style of a Cochrane review.

Requirements

- (i) a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; or
- (ii) a Graduate Certificate in Population Health Studies, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA;

and

(c) the equivalent of a UWA weighted average mark of at least 60 per cent

Faculty of Science

As a Faculty of Science student you are part of a community of researchers and fellow students contributing to science that makes a difference.

A UWA Science degree opens the door to a range of careers.

As a Faculty, we focus on bringing about meaningful change for the world and humanity in six key areas:

- feeding the world
- preventing, diagnosing and treating disease
- furthering human knowledge and serving humanity
- harnessing resources and energy for a sustainable future
- restoring and maintaining balance in our natural environment
- optimising physical and mental performance

Unless otherwise stated, all courses are held on the Perth campus.

Master of Agricultural Economics

study.uwa.edu.au/m/agricultural-economics

UWA course code: 73530

CRICOS code: 089266E

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

The course covers all key elements of agricultural economics with the overall course emphasis on the application of theory to real world circumstances. The core themes include applied economic analysis, policy analysis, and agribusiness management and analysis. The staff teaching the course have extensive real-world experience in the agribusiness and government sector, and graduates are well-suited to employment in both government and industry positions.

Requirements

To be considered for admission to this course you must have a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA, and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent.

Master of Agricultural Science

study.uwa.edu.au/m/agricultural-science

UWA course code: 72510

CRICOS code: 074945E

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

Gain the knowledge and skills needed for a future in the rapidly evolving area of agricultural science.

World populations and economies are increasing their demand for food and fibre. Agricultural systems are under pressure to meet environmental, social and economic goals. Agricultural Science provides the research, technology and information for the sustainable, profitable and ethical development of the industry.

Studies in agriculture science include soil science, genetics, cropping and pasture systems, soil–plant interaction, livestock production, agricultural economics and agribusiness.

UWA has a world-class reputation for research in agricultural science. Our Faculty is supported by the accomplished research and outreach activities of the Institute of Agriculture, the Centre for Plant Genetics and Breeding, the ARC Centre of Excellence in Plant Energy Biology, and the Australian Herbicide Resistance Initiative (AHRI).

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Agricultural Economics
- Crop and Livestock Farming Systems
- Genetics and Breeding
- Soil Science and Plant Nutrition

Requirements

To be considered for admission to this course you must have a bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and meet the prerequisite for your chosen specialisation.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree.

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study which is cognate (related) to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.

² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of Biological Arts

study.uwa.edu.au/m/biological-arts

UWA course code: 71530

CRICOS code: 083855K

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

Explore the artistic elements of science in this unique course that brings together the two distinct disciplines of art and science.

The course is designed for experienced art practitioners, scientists or humanities scholars to explore creative bio-research and focuses on recent advances in the life sciences, both in theory and practice. Emphasis is placed on critical thought, ethical and cultural issues and cross-disciplinary experimentation in art and science.

You have access to scientific laboratories and take both art and science units that include a major project and dissertation.

Requirements

To be considered for admission to this course you must have a Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, or Bachelor of Fine Arts, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA, and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent.

Master of Biological Science

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

Western Australia is a marine and terrestrial biodiversity hot-spot. Up to 80 per cent of the region's plants, marine fish and invertebrates are unique to the area. This makes WA the ideal living laboratory for studies in biological science. You'll gain an understanding of the molecular evolution, structure, physiology, reproduction, behaviour and ecology of organisms, and the skills to apply this knowledge to the management of natural systems and the species they support.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Marine Biology
- Conservation Biology
- Zoology
- Ecology

Requirements

To be considered for admission to this course you must have a Bachelor of Science or an equivalent qualification, recognised by UWA and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent, and meet the prerequisite for the chosen specialisation.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree.

Master of Clinical Audiology

study.uwa.edu.au/m/clin-audiology

UWA course code: 90540

CRICOS code: 033772E

Duration: 2 years

Intake period: February (next intake 2020: every even numbered year)

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$42,400

Course description

UWA's Master of Clinical Audiology course is one of only six accredited audiology courses in Australia. Hosted by the University's world-renowned Auditory Laboratory, the course offers you the chance to complete audiology research projects and work with highly trained staff with first-hand experience of the latest developments in hearing science. You'll have access to the laboratory, which is one of Australia's leading research institutions in auditory physiology and has established a worldwide reputation for excellence in teaching and research.

Requirements

A bachelor's degree, or equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 65 per cent, taken from the most recent degree of at least one year's full-time duration. You must also obtain a current National Police Certificate, National Criminal History Check or equivalent certification from country of residence, indicating no criminal conviction. The currency of a National Police Certificate or a National Criminal History Check is 12 months.

English language requirement: Upon application IELTS (Academic) score of 7.0 and no band less than 7.0.

Applicants presenting with the TOEFL iBT require an overall score of at least 94, a minimum score of 27 in the Writing section, a minimum score of 23 in the Speaking section, and no other sub-score less than 24.

Applicants presenting with the Pearson Test of English (PTE) (Academic) require an overall score of at least 65 and no sub-score less than 65.

Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Clinical Audiology study.uwa.edu.au/c/clin-audiology

UWA course code: 00840

CRICOS code: 033773D

Duration: 4 years

Intake period: flexible and dependent on candidate's background

Mode of study: combined postgraduate coursework and thesis

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$54,300

Course description

The University of Western Australia is the only Australian university that offers a combined PhD and master's degree in audiology that can be completed over four years. Audiology is the clinical science involving the prevention, assessment and rehabilitation of hearing loss and associated communication disorders.

The course develops your knowledge of clinical audiology with structured coursework units and you then have the opportunity to create new knowledge in a preferred research topic with guidance from an expert supervisor during your PhD.

Requirements

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

Under the guidance of our professional body Exercise and Sports Science Australia (ESSA), Accredited Exercise Physiologists (AEPs) have gained national recognition as allied health professionals with the knowledge and experience to prescribe exercise for people with chronic and complex medical conditions.

Requirements

A relevant bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 60 per cent.

Applicants must compete for a place in Semester 1 if they have either: a bachelor's degree that has been accredited by Exercise & Sport Science Australia at the Exercise Science level; or an official ESSA Graduate Entry Assessment letter that demonstrates equivalence with Exercise Science members.

All other applicants must compete for a place in Semester 2, and must have a relevant bachelor's degree that included foundation units in anatomy, functional anatomy, human physiology, biomechanics, exercise physiology and research methods/statistics.

Applicants who have not completed an ESSA-accredited Exercise Science course must apply to ESSA for a Graduate Entry Assessment within the first semester of study. This will guide the selection of electives. You must also demonstrate a minimum level of English language competence. See study.uwa.edu.au/elc

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

CRICOS code: 077708E

Duration: 4 years

Intake period: February

Mode of study: combined postgraduate coursework and thesis

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$37,300

Course description

The overall objective of this course is to produce clinical neuropsychologists who have the necessary academic and practical foundation, skills and experience to be able to develop into competent clinicians grounded in the scientist-practitioner tradition. Such clinicians should be skilled at developing therapeutic relationships with their clients and be competent to work productively and to the benefit of a wide range of clients across a broad variety of settings.

The Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Clinical Neuropsychology is accredited by the Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC). Graduates are eligible to register with the Psychology Board of Australia and practise as a psychologist with an area of practice endorsement in Clinical Neuropsychology.

Requirements

An accredited bachelor's honours degree in psychology with an upper second class Honours (2A), or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and you must be eligible for provisional registration as a psychologist with the Psychology Board of Australia, and you must secure a PhD supervisor from the School of Psychological Science at the time of submitting your application. Further prerequisites may be needed, depending on the applicant.

Note: Applicants are required to provide additional documents within their application. Visit study.uwa.edu.au/c/clin-neuropsych for details.

Applicants must secure a potential supervisor before submitting an application. Visit science.uwa.edu.au

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$38,300

Course description

Environmental scientists assess the impact of human activity and develop scientific, risk-based solutions to help secure a sustainable global environment. An interdisciplinary approach to problem-solving is essential in this field, meaning that both the biological and earth sciences and studies in environmental planning and management are integrated.

This course prepares you to deal with issues such as climate change, water resource management, sustainable natural resource use, and the rehabilitation of degraded or polluted environments.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Catchments and Water
- Environmental Management
- Environmental Rehabilitation
- Marine and Coastal
- Sensing and Environmental Data

Requirements

A bachelor's degree, or equivalent as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and meet the prerequisite for your chosen specialisation.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree.

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study which is cognate (related) to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.

² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

The Master of Exercise Science is designed for graduates who seek advanced knowledge in one of the sub-discipline areas within exercise science.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Sport and Exercise Science
- Sport and Recreation Management

The Sport and Exercise Science specialisation offers a choice of units within biomechanics; motor control and learning; exercise physiology and biochemistry; health behaviour; performance psychology and exercise rehabilitation.

The Sport and Recreation Management specialisation includes core and elective units from both the UWA Business School and Faculty of Science.

Requirements

A bachelor's degree, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and completed prior studies at a tertiary level in either sport science, exercise science, human movement, physical education, physical therapy, medicine or a related cognate discipline, as recognised by UWA.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree upon meeting additional requirements.

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study which is cognate (related) to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.

² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of Exercise Science (thesis and coursework) study.uwa.edu.au/mr/exercise-sci

UWA course code: 51610

CRICOS code: 064926B

Duration: 1 year

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: thesis and coursework

2019 tuition fee: AUD$39,300

Course description

This course enables advanced study or research majoring in one of the sub-discipline areas within exercise science with particular emphasis on movement science, biomechanics, exercise physiology, motor learning, pedagogy, health and sport psychology. A range of units are offered to accommodate students from differing backgrounds while also permitting specialisation in the above sub-disciplinary areas within the field of exercise science. Research comprises over 66 per cent of the course.

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science (Honours) with first class or upper-second class honours in Sport Science, Exercise Science, or Exercise and Health, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and secured a supervisor and research topic in the area of study.

Master of Geoscience

study.uwa.edu.au/m/geoscience

UWA course code: 72550

CRICOS code: 074954D

Duration: 2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or

coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

Geoscience is the study of our dynamic planet and aims to understand the origin and evolution of Earth, its ancient environments and climates, natural hazards and the formation of resources including petroleum, mineral deposits and groundwater. Knowledge of past and present earth processes is fundamental in predicting future environmental change.

As the majority of Australia's mineral and petroleum resources are found in Western Australia, UWA is in a prime location for students to strengthen their geoscientific knowledge and skills in gathering and interpreting geological information for a wide range of application.

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science in Geology, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project in the second year of this course.

English language requirements

Unless otherwise specified, IELTS (Academic) overall score minimum of 6.5, no band less than 6.0 (must include Academic Reading and Writing modules). However, our English language requirements vary across courses. For the most up-to-date information visit study.uwa.edu.au/elc

Master of Health Science

study.uwa.edu.au/m/health-sci

UWA course code: 71540

CRICOS code: 083862M

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework

2019 tuition fee: AUD$37,300

Course description

This course encompasses a range of biomedical and health disciplines that underpin advances crucial to human health and wellbeing. These are complemented by a public-health focus, which draws out the relevance of the science disciplines to the health industry (i.e. health promotion, research, policy and administration). Links between each science discipline, public health and the health industry are further enhanced by a practical experience within a health-related organisation. Graduates will be well positioned to pursue careers in the health industry, with opportunities in health promotion, administration and program implementation.

You can specialise in:

- Exercise and Health
- Human Biology
- Neuroscience
- Physiology

You nominate a specialisation on application.

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Biomedical Science, Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery, Bachelor of Health Science, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and meet the prerequisite for the chosen specialisation.

Note: Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

- ¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study related to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.
- ² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of Hydrogeology study.uwa.edu.au/m/hydrogeology

UWA course code: 72540

CRICOS code: 074963C

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee: AUD$39,300

Course description

Hydrogeology deals with the distribution, flow and interaction of groundwater with the Earth including the hydrosphere, biosphere and lithosphere. The subject investigates the chemical, physical and biological interactions occurring between water, soils/rocks, the environment and society. This course develops your ability to deal with topics such as groundwater dynamics, exploration, drilling and aquifer tests, sustainable allocation of groundwater, contamination and computer modelling.

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Engineering, or an equivalent qualification, specialising in either geology, environmental engineering, environmental science (including units in hydrology or equivalent), or hydrogeology; or in a related cognate discipline, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree upon completion of additional requirements.

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

- ¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study related to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.
- ² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of International Development

study.uwa.edu.au/m/int-development

UWA course code: 71550

CRICOS code: 083850D

Duration: 1.5–2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$36,200

Course description

This course provides you with a grounding in international development concepts, theories and approaches. You'll gain the analytical and practical skills you need to engage critically in development issues and debates from an interdisciplinary perspective, and to work across broad areas of development research, practice, and policy. The course begins with foundational units in development theory and case studies of development practice, before enabling you to specialise.

Specialisations

Choose from the following specialisations:

- Economics of Development
- Development in Practice
- Politics of Development

Requirements

A bachelor degree, or an equivalent qualification as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 65 per cent; and either meet the prerequisite for your chosen specialisation; or at least two years of relevant professional experience related to international development.

Note: Students may apply to undertake a research project within this degree.

Minimum course duration: 1.5 years full-time comprising 72 credit points of taught units and 24 points of admission credit.¹

Maximum course duration: Two years full-time comprising 96 points of taught units.²

- ¹ Students with a bachelor's degree or major in an area of study which is cognate (related) to their specialisations may be granted up to 24 points credit in recognition of prior learning.
- ² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

Master of Petroleum Geoscience

study.uwa.edu.au/m/petroleum-geoscience

UWA course code: 73540

CRICOS code: 093309J

Duration: 2 years

Intake period: February, July

Mode of study: coursework or coursework and dissertation

2019 tuition fee (per year): AUD$39,300

Course description

You'll develop advanced skills in geological and geophysical data analysis and integration of datasets related to sedimentary basin analysis and petroleum geoscience. The course places considerable emphasis on the development of practical skills underpinned by conceptual knowledge, and the application of both to solving problems related to basin history and petroleum exploration through coursework and research. You'll have the opportunity to use the latest digital technology to develop advanced skills in the analysis of geoscientific data and constructing 3D models.

Requirements

A Bachelor of Science in Geology, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent.

² Students requiring more than 72 credit points will receive course advice specifying additional units.

UWA online and multimode coursework degrees

The following programs are available to candidates who are applying to study while continuing to live overseas. The mode of delivery for these degrees is mainly online, though several include a residential component. Students are required to attend short-term intensive classes and are responsible for arranging their own travel and visa. International student visas are not available for these courses.

These programs are not available to those entering Australia on an international student visa. Postgraduate study online and through multimode programs can only be undertaken by coursework.

Graduate Certificate in Adult Sleep Science

study.uwa.edu.au/gc/adult-sleep-science

UWA course code: 51210

Duration: 0.5 years

Intake period: Beginning of year and mid-year (mid-year intake for part-time study only)

Mode of study: coursework; online and residential

2019 tuition fee: AUD$13,950

Course description

This course provides you with an understanding of sleep and circadian biology and the skills to use sophisticated equipment and instrumentation in order to perform laboratory-based and portable sleep studies as well as apply different protocols to sleep monitoring and perform basic scoring and analysis of sleep studies. Online and laboratory-based units are used to blend knowledge and practical skills. You will be expected to be in Perth for two weeks (June/July) to undertake the intensive practical component of the course.

The Graduate Certificate in Adult Sleep Science is recognised by the Board of Registered Polysomnographic Technologists (BRPT). Completion of this course meets the requirements of one of the components in establishing eligibility to sit a PRSGT examination.

Requirements

- a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Biomedical Science or Bachelor of Medicine or Bachelor of Surgery, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and
- successfully completed prior studies at tertiary level in either anatomy or human biology, biomedical science, medicine, or health science; or in a related cognate discipline, as recognised by UWA; and
- a current National Police Certificate¹, or equivalent certification, indicating no criminal conviction.

¹ Currency of National Police Certificate is 12 months.

Graduate Diploma in Sleep Science

study.uwa.edu.au/gd/sleep-science

UWA course code: 52320

Duration: 1 year

Intake period: Beginning of year and mid-year (mid-year intake for part-time study only)

Mode of study: coursework; online and residential

2019 tuition fee: AUD$27,900

Course description

This course provides advanced competencies for a sleep technologist, based on a higher order of theoretical content than the certificate. It provides you with advanced practical skills in adult and paediatric sleep scoring and application of therapies for sleep disorders and practical skills in management of a sleep laboratory.

You will be expected to be in Perth for two weeks in June/July and again in November/December to undertake the two intensive practical components of the course.

Requirements

- a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Biomedical Science or Bachelor of Medicine or Bachelor of Surgery, or an equivalent qualification, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and
- successfully completed prior studies at tertiary level in either anatomy or human biology, biomedical science, medicine, or health science; or in a related cognate discipline, as recognised by UWA; and
- a current National Police Certificate, or equivalent certification, indicating no criminal conviction.¹

¹ Currency of National Police Certificate is 12 months.

Graduate Diploma in Dental Sleep Medicine

study.uwa.edu.au/gd/dental-sleep-science

UWA course code: 52340

Duration: 1 year

Intake period: Beginning of year and mid-year

Mode of study: coursework; online

2019 tuition fee: AUD$39,300

Course description

This course is specifically aimed at providing dental practitioners with formal training in sleep medicine to complement clinical training in the use of oral devices used in the treatment of sleep apnoea. In addition to theoretical knowledge, you will assess and report on the progress of actual cases.

Although this course is totally online, you are assumed to have access to a sleep laboratory or clinic near your home or practice, where you can develop a relationship with a local respiratory physician or dedicated sleep physician who can act as a mentor as well as facilitate sleep laboratory visits.

Requirements

- a Bachelor of Dental Surgery or Doctor of Dental Medicine or an equivalent qualification that allows dentistry practise, as recognised by UWA; and the equivalent of a UWA Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 50 per cent; and
- at least two years of relevant, documented professional experience assessed by UWA to be sufficient to permit satisfactory completion of the course; and
- registration to practice dentistry, demonstrated by either registration on the Australian Health Practitioner Registration Agency website; or satisfactory documentation showing registration with an international accreditation body, as recognised by UWA.

Help with English language skills

UWA Centre for English Language Teaching (UWA CELT)

UWA CELT offers accredited English Language Intensive Courses for Overseas Students (ELICOS) programs in General English and English for Academic Purposes, as well as preparation for IELTS as an internationally recognised examination.

Academic English and Study Skills Bridging Course (Bridging Course)

The Bridging Course has been designed for international students who wish to study at UWA but do not have the University's required level of English proficiency. The course is also suitable for students with unconditional entry into UWA who would like to further develop their language ability, study and research skills and confidence before commencing tertiary study.

A 70 per cent pass in the Bridging Course meets the University's English language requirement for most undergraduate and postgraduate courses, although some postgraduate courses have a higher English language requirement.

The University offers a choice of English language programs through the UWA Centre for English Language Teaching (UWA CELT) to prepare international students for tertiary academic study.

How to apply for a postgraduate degree

Applicants are expected to have completed an undergraduate degree at an approved university and undertaken adequate preparation for the degree for which they are applying. For PhD admission requirements see page opposite.

Coursework

Apply online

- Submit an online application to study.uwa.edu.au/how-to-apply/start-my-application that includes all necessary documentation specified in the admission requirements of your course. For admission requirements details, visit study.uwa.edu.au/how-to-apply.
- or
- Submit your application through a UWA overseas representative in your country. A complete list of representatives can be found at study.uwa.edu.au/international-agents.
 - UWA assesses your application, and, if successful, you will receive a letter of offer to study at UWA via email.

Research

Contact the Higher Degree by Research (HDR) support team in the most appropriate faculty to complete an 'Expression of Interest'. This will help identify potential supervisors and assess your eligibility for the research degree.

Read the profiles of our Research Leaders, who may be potential supervisors at research.uwa.edu.au/fellows

After identifying a potential supervisor, you will be invited to lodge a formal application (non-scholarship)*. Submit an application to the respective HDR support team, which should include:

- A completed research application form, which is available at postgraduate.uwa.edu.au/staff/forms#appforms
- Any outstanding documents or information as listed on the application form

The application will be sent to the designated School and the Graduate Research School for consideration.

Successful applicants are sent an offer package electronically, including a letter of offer, acceptance documents and pre-departure information.

*Scholarships have a different application process, which includes different deadlines. Contact the relevant HDR support team for further enquiries.

There are no deadlines to apply for Higher Degree by Research courses apart from the Master of Research and combined Doctor of Philosophy and Master's courses.

- For frequently asked questions, you may refer to study.uwa.edu.au/how-to-apply/postgraduate-research

Accept your offer

On receipt of your offer-letter email, click the 'accept' button to be taken to UWA Accept, where you can accept your offer. The first thing you need to do is activate your UWA Student account before you can login and accept your offer. You may be required to submit scans or clear photos of any requested documents, agree to the terms and conditions of studying at UWA and then make your first payment (Overseas Student Healthcare Cover for the duration of your course, and first semester of tuition fees). If you are a sponsored student, submitting proof of sponsorship will satisfy the payment requirement. For more information on how to apply to UWA directly, visit study.uwa.edu.au or study.uwa.edu.au/international-agents.

Pre-enrolment information

When UWA confirms all submitted documents are correct, you have met the English Language Competency requirements for your course and your first payment has been received, you will be issued a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) package that contains a letter of welcome including links to our pre-departure and on-campus accommodation guides and a Confirmation of Enrolment.

Flights and visa

You are required to make your own travel and student visa arrangements. UWA's overseas representatives can help with these arrangements if you need any additional advice or assistance. In some countries, student visas may be obtained electronically. Visit homeaffairs.gov.au.

PhD/MPhil admission requirements

Approval for admission to a PhD/MPhil requires an applicant to demonstrate that they have sufficient background and experience in independent supervised research to successfully complete the course, and for the University to ensure that appropriate supervision and resourcing are available.

Applicants are required to demonstrate that they have met the requirements of the University Policy on Adequate Research Preparation and any other requirements for admission of the University, and

- (a) have a bachelor's degree of this University or equivalent qualification; or
- (b)
 - (i) have previously undertaken work, of a sufficiently high standard, towards a higher degree by research in this or another approved institution but not have submitted it for any degree; and
 - (ii) have completed an appropriate PhD/MPhil research proposal.

A student who wishes to undertake a PhD/MPhil in the field of creative writing must, in addition, submit a substantial folio of published creative work, normally in the form of one or more books.

Prior to enrolment, all applicants are required to demonstrate that they have met the University's English language requirements.
