

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	PHCYM503 Medication Management Review and Aged Care Pharmacists. This microcredential provides pharmacists the opportunity to enhance their existing skills and apply knowledge in a new area. It was developed by experts in the field and consumers. It takes the approach that pharmacists already have the existing knowledge and will be supported to develop new skills to apply that their knowledge in new settings. Graduates will be credentialed to deliver Medication Management Reviews and work as Aged Care Onsite Pharmacists.
Certified learning	(1) identify relevant information required to assess medication regimens for people with complex health needs; (2) demonstrate an understanding of common health conditions in older people; (3) assessment of medication regimens for people with complex health needs.; (4) describe the governance and process structures that apply in residential aged care facilities; (5) design interventions to improve quality use of medicines in residential aged care facilities; and (6) synthesis of the investigation, diagnosis and management of health conditions for people in residential aged care facilities.
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	300 hours over 12 weeks with readings, video tutorials, virtual experiences and assessments delivered asynchronously along with specific synchronous activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 6 x 2 hour workshop tutorials on Thursdays at 5pm AWST.</li> <li>- An in person visit at a residential aged care facility that students self identify for half a day.</li> </ul>
Main assessment task	Application of a skill to a routine problem, Application of multiple skills to complex problems, Testing recall of facts, Portfolio and reflective evidence for validation of proficiency
Indicative equivalent level	Postgraduate
Industry recognition	This microcredential is accredited by the Australian Pharmacy Council for accreditation for Medication Management Reviews and Aged Care Onsite Pharmacists.
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD	12
Points for conversion to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>. Admission to an award course</li> <li>. Credit towards an award course</li> </ul>	No Yes
If yes, how much credit?	Stackable with additional micro-credentials. Students may apply for the 93220 Graduate Certificate in Advanced Medicines Management (ID 2005) after successfully completing the micro-credentials and associated assessments.
	Credit is two unit