

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	PHCYM504 Advanced Clinical Skills. Students will be able to appropriately use and understand laboratory tests and Patient Reported Measures tools in practice. This microcredential will cover when to use these tools, how to interpret them and the limitations of these tools.
Certified learning	(1) apply patient reported measures and laboratory tests in practice including application to clinical practice; (2) identify limitations to interpreting patient reported measures and laboratory tests in clinical practice; (3) describe when patient reported measures and laboratory tests should be considered; and (4) interpret patient reported measures in practice to help make decisions about interventions and monitoring.
How learner participated	Onsite only
Effort required (indicative)	Delivered asynchronously online 3 days a week of asynchronous learning including reading, online lectures, assessments and private study.
Main assessment task	Application of multiple skills to complex problems
Indicative equivalent level	Postgraduate
Industry recognition	This microcredential is approved by WA Health as a component of the clinical skills training for pharmacists participating in the Enhanced Community Access Program.
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	12
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Stackable with additional micro-credentials. Students may apply for the 93210 Graduate Certificate in Quality Use of Medicines and Prescribing (ID 2001); Graduate Certificate in Advanced Medicines Management after successfully completing the micro-credentials and associated assessments. Credit is two unit