

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	LAWSM105 #Law4GenerationSelfie. This unit introduces students to several different areas of important, interesting and relatively contemporary legal issues. These topics may include: how popular culture portrays lawyers and the courts; emojis and the law; influencers and the law; artificial intelligence and the law and Body Image Law. Importantly, students learn to critically analyse how the law has changed to adapt to technology.
Certified learning	(1) explain and critically analyse how some of the following impact the law: emojis, influencers, the internet of things, fashion, popular culture, body image, artificial intelligence and social media; (2) evaluate whether current law has sufficiently adapted to advances in technology (e.g. the internet of things); (3) contribute respectfully and meaningfully to discussion on Microsoft Teams; and (4) use appropriate oral communication skills.
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	The unit is 50 hours of work in total. It has four lectures that are approximately an hour and a half and workshops on Microsoft Teams that are approximately five hours. The unit has readings that are approximately 22 hours worth of work and assessment is approximately 17 hours worth of work (including preparation time).
Main assessment task	Application of multiple skills to complex problems, Application of multiple skills to routine problems
Indicative equivalent level	Undergraduate
Industry recognition	N/A
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	2
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Credit is less than one unit