

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

---

Title and brief description	PSYCM101 OrgMind: Psychology to guide your future career. This micro-credential is designed to empower students to explore their professional strengths and design their career journey. Students will develop skills to enhance their employability, as well as understanding how to obtain and maintain meaningful employment over their career. Over a span of 10 weeks, this fully online experience will equip students with invaluable skills in self-management, interpersonal skills, communication, planning and organising, networking, and a forward-thinking approach to the evolving landscape of work. Designed to unlock your potential, elevate your skills and chart your course toward career success.
Certified learning	(1) develop an understanding of employability (communication, interpersonal skills, networking, self-management, planning and organising); (2) describe their own professional strengths and areas for development as they relate to employability and the work context; and (3) communicate their employability to future employers.
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	55 lectures: 4 x 15 minute online lectures per week for 10 weeks
Main assessment task	Portfolio and reflective evidence for validation of proficiency
Indicative equivalent level	Undergraduate
Industry recognition	SCSA
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	2
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Credit is less than one unit

---