

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	HPEDM505 Supervision and Feedback in Clinical Practice. Develops practical skills in clinical supervision and feedback, focusing on supporting learners, delivering effective verbal feedback, and promoting safe, high-quality clinical practice.
Certified learning	(1) apply supervision and mentoring models within clinical practice settings; (2) identify learner needs and support development through structured supervision; (3) design and implement learning processes and resources appropriate to the clinical context; (4) facilitate individual learning through effective supervision and support strategies; (5) deliver clear, constructive, and purposeful verbal feedback in clinical settings; and (6) reflect on the role of supervision and feedback in supporting safe and effective clinical practice.
How learner participated	Onsite only
Effort required (indicative)	4 x 3 hr online modules and 40 hours of self directed work and assessment
Main assessment task	Application of a skill to a complex problem, Portfolio and reflective evidence for validation of proficiency
Indicative equivalent level	Postgraduate
Industry recognition	This micro-credential aligns with short courses that have been offered in person for WA Health employees since 2007. Offering this group of micro-credentials will enhance accessibility which is supported by different groups within WA Health including WACHS and CAHO. Industry endorsement does not require company logo.
Quality assurance	The quality of UWA Plus micro-credentials is assured through The University of Western Australia's standards and academic integrity processes.
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:	2
. Admission to an award course	No
. Credit towards an award course	Yes
. If yes, how much credit?	Credit is less than one unit