

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

| | |
|--|--|
| Title and brief description | KOREM201 Korea and Its Neighbours This micro-credential provides an overview of Korea's relations with other nations. It outlines the impact of historical events such as the Japanese colonial occupation, the US Army Military Government in Korea, the Korean War, and Korea's ongoing engagement with other nations. Upon completion, students will be able to evaluate how historical events continue to inform Korean politics, society, and international relations. |
| Teaching staff | Caleb Kelso-Marsh |
| Certified learning | (1) develop an understanding of the historical events that have impacted the development of Korea's international relations; and (2) critically analyse how past historical events continues to influence contemporary Korean diplomatic relations |
| How learner participated | Online only |
| Effort required (indicative) | 50 hours |
| Main assessment task | Application of a skill to a routine problem |
| Supervision and identity verification | Unsupervised, no identity verification |
| Indicative equivalent level | Bachelor |
| Quality assurance | UWA |
| Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to: | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Admission to an award course | No Click or tap here to enter text. |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Credit towards an award course | Yes Stackable with additional micro-credentials for unspecified credit toward an undergraduate course (6 PD Points required) |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If yes, how much credit? | Credit is less than one unit |