

UWA Plus Micro-credentials

Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	KOREM202 Foundations of Korean Law and Society This micro-credential provides an overview of the Korean legal systems. It outlines the history and development of the Korean legal systems, and key issues in South Korean criminal and civil procedure law, and provides a brief overview of the North Korean legal system. Upon completion, students will be able to assess how Korean legal principles are applied in the Korean context.
Teaching staff	Caleb Kelso-Marsh
Certified learning	(1) develop an understanding of the development and key features of the current Korean legal system; and (2) assess how Korean legal principles may apply to Korean society
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	50 hours
Main assessment task	Application of a skill to a routine problem
Supervision and identity verification	Unsupervised, no identity verification
Indicative equivalent level	Bachelor
Quality assurance	UWA
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Admission to an award course 	No Click or tap here to enter text.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Credit towards an award course 	Yes Stackable with additional micro-credentials for unspecified credit toward an undergraduate course (6 PD Points required)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If yes, how much credit? 	Credit is less than one unit