

UWA Plus Micro-credentials
Critical Information Summary

Title and brief description	KOREM203 Australia-Korea Relations This micro-credential provides an overview of the relationship between Australia and Korea. It outlines the history of Australian-South Korean relations, and the geopolitical and economic significance of this relationship, and provides a brief overview of Australia's relationship with North Korea. Upon completion, students will be able to describe the importance of Australian-South Korean relations to both nations.
Teaching staff	Caleb Kelso-Marsh
Certified learning	(1) develop an understanding of the history of Australia-South Korea relations; and (2) describe the geopolitical and economic significance of Australia-South Korea relationship
How learner participated	Online only
Effort required (indicative)	50 hours
Main assessment task	Application of a skill to a routine problem
Supervision and identity verification	Unsupervised, no identity verification
Indicative equivalent level	Bachelor
Quality assurance	UWA
Successful learner earns PD Points for conversion to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Admission to an award course 	No Click or tap here to enter text.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Credit towards an award course 	Yes Stackable with additional micro-credentials for unspecified credit toward an undergraduate course (6 PD Points required)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If yes, how much credit? 	Credit is less than one unit